

Contents

List of Tables	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
List of Abbreviations	xii
Notes on the Contributors	xiii
Foreword Gro Harlem Brundtland	xvi
Introduction	xvii
Part One: The Background
1 Endangered Earth Sir Shridath S. Ramphal	3
2 Threatened Islands, Threatened Earth: Early Professional Science and the Historical Origins of Global Environmental Concerns Richard Grove	15
Part Two: Threats to the Environment
3 The Changing Climate and Problems of Prediction Stephen H. Schneider	33
4 Acid Precipitation Matthew Wilkinson and Sarah Woodin	43
5 Deforestation: a Botanist's View Ghillean T. Prance	52
6 Agricultural Pollution: From Costs and Causes to Sustainable Practices Jules N. Pretty	60
7 Halocarbons and Stratospheric Ozone – a Warning from Antarctica Joe Farman	71
Part Three: Individuals, Society and Sustainable Development
8 Changes in Perception Martin Holdgate	79
9 Religion and the Environment David Gosling	97
10 Industry and the Environment: A Question of Balance Christopher Hampson	108
Part Four: National Governments and Sustainable Development
11 OECD Nations and Sustainable Development Hon. Charles Caccia, MP	123

12	Common Future – Common Challenge: Aid Policy and the Environment Rt. Hon. Christopher Patten, MP	135
Part Five: The International Community and Sustainable Development
13	Environmental Advance and the European Community Stanley Clinton Davis	155
14	The United Nations System and Sustainable Development Javier Perez de Cuellar	164
15	Diplomacy and Sustainable Development Sir Crispin Tickell	172
Part Six: Conclusions
16	Interpreting the Signals Sir Arthur Norman	181
17	Sustainable Development: Meeting the Growth Imperative for the 21st Century Jim MacNeill	191
	Notes	206
	A Note to Researchers	221
	Index	222

List of Tables

- Table 6.1 Key routes through which agriculture pollutes the environment, and range of sectors suffering these imposed costs external to agriculture
- Table 10.1 Responses to a Gallup Poll on environmental matters