

---

Contents

Preface	iv
Acknowledgments	vi
INTRODUCTION	1
1 How we know what we know and how we know we know	2
2 Research as a way of knowing	6
PHASE 1: ESSENTIAL FIRST STEPS	23
3 Selecting a problem	24
4 Selecting variables	39
5 Finding a variable's measurements	53
6 Selecting a research design	88
7 Selecting a sample	116
PHASE 2: DATA COLLECTION	139
8 Collecting data	140
9 Summarising and presenting data	147
10 Doing qualitative research	171
11 Ethics in human research	190
PHASE 3: ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION	203
12 Drawing conclusions	204
13 Reporting your research	218
Appendix A: Differences in levels of environmental concern between generations	224
Appendix B: A table of random numbers	236
Index	238