

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction: Researching Social Gerontology: Concepts, Methods and Issues	1
Part One: Concepts and Measurement
Introduction	6
1 Age by Bill Bytheway	9
2 Dependency by David Wilkin	19
3 Social Support by Hazel Qureshi	32
4 Quality of Life by Beverley Hughes	46
Part Two: Methodological Approaches
Introduction	59
5 Whom to Study? Defining the Problem by Graham Fennell	62
6 Evaluation Research and Experiment in Social Gerontology by David Challis and Robin Darton	75
7 Doing Ethnography in a Geriatric Unit by Eileen Fairhurst	101
8 Triangulating Data by Leonie Kellaher, Sheila Peace and Dianne Willcocks	115
9 Researching Very Old People by Michael Bury and Anthea Holme	129
10 Doing Biographical Research by Brian Gearing and Tim Dant	143
Part Three: Issues
Introduction	160
11 Research Ethics and Older People by Alan Butler	162
12 The Funding of Social Gerontological Research by Margot Jefferys	171
13 Making Research Useful and Usable by Averil Osborn and Dianne Willcocks	188
References	203
Index	221