Contents

Preface xi
Acknowledgments xxi
The Authors xxiii

Part One: Financing Options for Start-up Firms 1
1 Funding Entrepreneurial Firms 3
2 Bootstrapping Internally and the Challenges to Securing Outside Finance 23
3 Types of Outside Investors Willing to Finance Growing Firms 36

Part Two: The Two Main Sources of Funding: Business Angels and Venture Capitalists 61
4 The Value of Business Angels and Venture Capitalists 63
5 Harnessing the Power of Business Angels and Venture Capitalists 77
6 Understanding the Investors’ Structural and Personal Differences 95

Part Three: Business Angel and Venture Capitalist Differences Throughout the Investment Process 113
7 Investors’ Motivations and Investment Criteria 115
8 Screening the Deal and Conducting Due Diligence 143
9 Negotiating and Forming the Legal Contract 171
10 Monitoring the Investment 188
11 Exiting the Investment and Realizing Returns 199
Part Four: Attracting Business Angel Funds to Your Start-up Firm 213
12 Valuing Your Firm 215
13 Negotiating the Funding Agreement 224

Part Five: Becoming a Successful Business Angel Investor 233
14 Steps in Effectively Making Your First Investment in an Entrepreneurial Firm 235

Part Six: The Future of the Business Angel Market 247
15 The Business Angel Market in the New Millennium 249

Part Seven: Putting the Wheels in Motion 255
Appendix One: A Detailed List of More Than Seventy Matching Services in the United States 257
Appendix Two: Further Helpful Resources 339
Appendix Three: Writing a Winning Business Plan 359
Glossary 373
Bibliography 383
Name Index 407
Subject Index 411