

Contents

Prelude: Beware of the M Word Russell C. Leong	ix
Acknowledgments	xiii
Part I. Introduction: Theoretical Issues
1. Introduction: Cultural Identity and the Politics of Place Arif Dirlik and Roxann Prazniak	3
2. Place-Based Imagination: Globalism and the Politics of Place Arif Dirlik	15
3. Indigenous Struggles and the Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie Jonathan Friedman	53
Part II. Transnationalism and Ethnic Identities: Labor, Capital, and the Problem of Community
4. Asians on the Rim: Transnational Capital and Local Community in the Making of Contemporary Asian America Arif Dirlik	73
5. Chinese Illegals Are American Labor Peter Kwong	101
6. Organizing Labor among Difference: The Impact of Race/Ethnicity, Citizenship, and Gender on Working-Class Solidarity Margaret M. Zamudio	111
7. Natives and Nations: Identity Formation in Postcolonial Melanesia Geoffrey M. White	139

8. The Indigenization of Ethnicity Elizabeth Rata	167
Part III. Contra Developmentalism: The Political Ecology of Indigenism
9. Place, Economy, and Culture in a Postdevelopment Era Arturo Escobar	193
10. Globalization and Environmental Resistance Politics James H. Mittelman	219
11. Political Organizing in the Land of the Great Spirit, Tunkashila: A Conversation with Joann Tall Roxann Prazniak	247
12. Beyond Unity: Transcommunal Roots of Coordination in the Haudenosaunee (Iroquois) Model of Cooperation and Diversity John Brown Childs	267
Part IV. Concluding Essay
13. Rethinking Difference and Equality: Women and the Politics of Place Wendy Harcourt	299
Index	323
About the Contributors	327