CONTENTS

Part I  Historical Perspectives on Law and Medicine

1. Law and Medicine—An Overview, 3
2. From Cooperation to Contention, 25
3. From Liability to Business, 48

Part II  The Judicial Response to Managed Care

4. Historical Precursors, 73
5. The Courts and Managed Care—Establishing the Rules, 96
6. Immunity, 125
7. The Backlash, 152
8. Managed Care Litigation—Shaping Policy and Health-Care Delivery, 176

Part III  Restoring the Primacy of the Physician–Patient Relationship

9. Mutual Distrust Between Attorneys and Physicians, 201
10. Fiduciary Duty, 222
11. Strangers in the Night, or Conciliation and Cooperation?, 250

References, 273
Index, 287