

Contents

Contributors	vii
Introduction	1
Section 1: Narratives	21
1. The ethicality of narrative medicine Rita Charon	23
2. Soldiers become casualties: doctors' accounts of the SARS epidemic Eugene Wu, Frances Rapport, Kip Jones, Trisha Greenhalgh	37
3. Poems from the heart: living with heart failure Marilyn Kendall, Scott Murray	52
4. Performance narratives in the clinical world Cheryl Mattingly	73
5. "I cut because it helps": narratives of self-injury in teenage girls Petra M Boynton, Annabelle Auerbach	95
6. The DIPEX project: collecting personal experiences of illness and health care Andrew Herxheimer, Sue Ziebland	115
7. Narratives of spirituality and religion in end-of-life care Arthur W Frank	132
8. The death of the narrator Catherine Belling	146
9. Narrative, emotion, and understanding Peter Goldie	156
10. The voice of experience and the voice of the expert – can they speak to each other? Yiannis Gabriel	168
Section 2: Counter-narratives	187
11. Wounded or warrior? Stories of being or becoming deaf Lesley Jones, Robin Bunton	189

12. Narrative analysis and contested allegations of Munchausen syndrome by proxy Clive Baldwin	205
13. Confounding the experts: the vindication of parental testimony in shaken baby syndrome James Le Fanu	223
14. Narratives of compound loss: parents' stories from the organ retention scandal Ruth Richardson	239
15. The power of stories over statistics: lessons from neonatal jaundice and infant airplane safety Thomas B Newman	257
Section 3: Meta-narratives	277
16. Narratives of health inequality: interpreting the determinants of health Gareth Williams	279
17. Narratives of displacement and identity Vieda Skultans	292
18. A thrice-told tale: new readings of an old story Catherine Kohler Riessman	309
19. The role of stories and storytelling in organisational change efforts: a field study of an emerging "community of practice" within the UK National Health Service Paul Bate	325
20. Meta-narrative mapping: a new approach to the systematic review of complex evidence Trisha Greenhalgh	349
21. How narratives work in psychiatric science: an example from the biological psychiatry of PTSD Allan Young	382
22. Storying policy: constructions of risk in proposals to reform UK mental health legislation David J Harper	397
23. The temporal construction of medical narratives Brian Hurwitz	414