

CONTENTS

	LIST OF FIGURES AND TABLES	9-10
	LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS	11-16
1	INTRODUCTION: UNVEILING A SHROUDED PROCESS	17-42
1.1	The complex character of EC decision making	17
1.2	The evolution of the European Community	20
1.3	The multilevel Community decision-making process	33
1.4	The focus of analysis: the research questions	37
1.5	A model-guided approach introduced	41
2	UNDERSTANDING DECISION MAKING: AN EMPIRICAL RESEARCH DESIGN	43-65
2.1	The origins of the two-stage model	45
2.2	The two-stage model of policy making	48
2.3	The model and Dutch EC policy	53
2.4	The empirical research design	58
3	SPINNING A WEB: DUTCH EC POLICY PROCEDURES	66-87
3.1	The struggle for coordinating authority: the formative years	68
3.2	The resolution of the struggle for coordinating authority	72
3.3	The institutionalization of procedures: the general structure	75
3.4	The institutionalization of procedures: differences between policy fields	84
4	FIGHTING AGAINST THE CLOCK: POLICY COORDINATION IN PRACTICE	88-146
4.1	Practice versus procedure: a network analysis	92
4.2	Conditions determining policy coordination: the importance and type of decisions	113

4.3	Conditions determining policy coordination: the policy field	119
4.4	Conditions determining policy coordination: the number of ministries participating	132
4.5	Summary	145
5	REACHING AGREEMENT IN THE COMMUNITY: A QUESTION OF GIVE AND TAKE	147-185
5.1	Conditions determining decision making: the importance type of decisions	149
5.2	Conditions determining decision making: the field of policy	154
5.3	Connecting policy coordination and negotiation	158
5.4	The reconciliation of conflicts: decision taking in practice	165
5.5	Summary	184
6	CONCLUDING REMARKS: THE ADMINISTRATIVE AND POLITICAL ROLES	186-198
6.1	The main results of the research	186
6.2	The administrative versus the political role	193
6.3	Coordination and negotiation: improvements and final remarks	196
	SAMENVATTING	199-208
	APPENDICES	209-252
I	Equations of the two-stage model	209
II	The qualitative research	212
III	The selection of decision	216
IV	The quantitative research	227
V	The coordination procedures	233
VI	The specification of the two-stage model	249
	REFERENCES	253-260
	CURRICULUM VITAE	261

LIST OF FIGURES AND TABLES

Figures

1	The Community decision-making process	36
2	The integrated model	51
3	An outline of the coordination process: the Working Group level	76
4	An outline of the coordination process: the Coreper level	79
5	An outline of the coordination process: the Council level	82

Tables

1	Activities of the Council of Ministers: 1980-1988	86
2	Positional power of administrative units in the overall coordination networks	100-101
3	Positional power of administrative units in the Working Group level coordination networks	106
4	Positional power of administrative units in the Instruction Meeting level coordination networks	109
5	Positional power of administrative units in the CoCo level coordination networks	111
6	Degree of importance of the 74 decisions analyzed by decisive level of policy coordination	116
7	Type of decision in the 74 decisions analyzed by decisive level of policy coordination	118
8	Characteristics of policy fields according to ministry conducting negotiations in the Council	122-123
9	Degree of importance of the 74 decisions analyzed by composition of the Council	126
10	Composition of the Council for the 74 decisions analyzed by decisive level of policy coordination	131
11	Number of ministries participating in the 74 decisions analyzed by degree of importance of decision	133

12	Number of ministries participating in the 74 decisions analyzed by decisive level of policy coordination	136
13	Level of substantive discussion of the 74 decisions analyzed by decisive level of decision making	150
14	Average degree of importance for Member States in the 74 decisions analyzed by decisive level of decision making	152
15	Type of decision in the 74 decisions analyzed by decisive level of decision making	153
16	Compositions of the Council in the 74 decisions analyzed by decisive level of decision making	155
17	Decisive level of decision making in the 74 decisions analyzed by the decisive level of policy coordination	160
18	The outcome of the framework directive on air pollution by gases from the engines of motor vehicles	170
19	Predicted outcome of exhaust emissions framework directive according to alternative specifications	178

Tables in the appendices

A	The coordination procedures applied in different policy fields	234-248
B	Salience of ten Member States participating in substantive discussion	249
C	Control (based on exports as fraction of 1987 gross national product)	250
D	Policy position of ten Member States participating in substantive discussion	251