

Contents

---

Sources and Acknowledgements	x
Introduction	1
Part 1 On the Nature of Sociology	3
1 C. Wright Mills: The Sociological Imagination and the Promise of Sociology	5
2 Zygmunt Bauman: Thinking Sociologically	7
Part 2 Social Interaction in Everyday Life	13
3 Erving Goffman: Focused Interaction and Unfocused Interaction	14
4 Erving Goffman: Civil Inattention and Face Engagements in Social Interaction	17
5 Steve Duck: What are We Trying to Develop when We Develop a Relationship?	23
6 Michael Young: Time, Habit and Repetition in Day-to-Day Life	25
Part 3 Conformity and Deviance	29
7 Andrew T. Scull: The Social Control of the Mad	31
8 Trevor Jones, Brian MacLean and Jock Young: Attitudes towards Crime in Islington	33
9 John Auld, Nicholas Dorn and Nigel South: Irregular Work, Irregular Pleasures: Heroin in the 1980s	37
10 Michael Clarke: The Nature of Business Crime	41
11 Josie O'Dwyer and Pat Carlen: Surviving in a Women's Prison	47
Part 4 Gender and Sexuality	52
12 Debbie Taylor: Women: Work and Domestic Responsibilities	54

13	Sue Sharpe : 'Just Like a Girl': Gender Differences, Home-making and 'Real Work'	56
14	Anna Coote : Lesley Smith: Lorry Driver	58
15	Marc E. Mishkind et al. : A Man's Body and his Sense of Self	60
16	Jane Dowdeswell : The Act of Rape	64
17	Stuart Weir and Claire Sanders : Dangerous Liaisons: AIDS and Unsafe Sex	67
	Part 5 Class and Stratification	73
18	Anthony Giddens : Marx and Weber on Class	75
19	Nicholas Abercrombie and Alan Warde : Social Mobility: The Nuffield Study	81
20	John Scott : The Old Boy Network	87
21	Robert Waller : Social Class and Voting Patterns	94
22	Hakon Leulfusrud and Alison Woodward : Women at Class Crossroads: Repudiating Conventional Theories of Family Class	95
	Part 6 Politics and the State	104
23	Jean Blondel : What are Political Parties for?	106
24	Gøsta Esping-Andersen : Social Democracy in Theory and Practice	110
25	David Held : What Should Democracy Mean Today?	113
26	David Lane : Soviet Politics under Perestroika	122
27	Ernest Gellner : Nations and Nationalism	131
	Part 7 Organizations and Bureaucracy	136
28	Henry Jacoby : The Bureaucratization of the World	137
29	Gary Alan Fine : Letting off Steam? Redefining a Restaurant's Work Environment	139
30	Lewis A. Coser : Greedy Institutions	144
	Part 8 Military Power and War	149
31	Mary Kaldor : The Debate about the Origins of the Cold War	151
32	Mady Wechsler Segal : The Military and the Family	156
33	Jean Bethke Elshain : Women and War	160
	Part 9 Race and Ethnicity	162
34	Frances Aboud : The Development of Ethnic Awareness and Identification	163
35	Paul Gilroy : 'There Ain't No Black in the Union Jack'	166

36	Ellis Cashmore: Black Entrepreneurs: No More Room at the Top	169
Part 10 Intimacy, Marriage and the Family		173
37	Lawrence Stone: Divorce and Separation in Eighteenth-century England	175
38	Gwynn Davis and Mervyn Murch: Why Do Marriages Break Down?	177
39	Jan Pahl: Household Spending, Personal Spending and the Control of Money in Marriage	182
40	Elizabeth A. Stanko: Wife Battering: All in the Family	186
41	Michelle Stanworth: Reproductive Technologies and the Deconstruction of Motherhood	191
Part 11 Education and Media		197
42	Paul E. Willis: Dossing, Blagging and Wagging: Countercultural Groups in the School Environment	199
43	Ivan Reid: Social Class and Education	204
44	Saeeda Cahanum: Finishing School: Asian Girls in the British Educational System	210
45	Tamar Liebes and Elihu Katz: Dallas and Genesis: Some Questions of Education and Popular Culture	213
46	John B. Thompson: Mass Communication, Symbolic Goods and Media Products	218
Part 12 Religion and Society		223
47	Thomas Luckmann: Religion and Personal Identity in Modern Society	225
48	Jeffrey K. Hadden: Challenging Secularization Theory	230
49	Emmanuel Sivan: Radical Islam	237
Part 13 Work and Industry		241
50	Claus Offe: The Political Economy of the Labour Market	244
51	J. I. Gershuny and R. E. Pahl: Implications and Future of the Informal Economy	248
52	Jeremy Seabrook: House of the Rising Sun: The Nature and Impact of Japanese Corporations	252
53	Paul Routledge: Lock-out at Times Newspapers Ltd	255
54	E. Schoenberger: From Fordism to Flexible Accumulation: Technology, Competition and the Internationalization of Production	260
55	Ruth Pearson: Female Workers in the Third World	266

56	David Lyon : Information Technology and the 'Information Society'	271
Part 14 The Globalizing of Social Life		274
57	Peter Worsley : The Creation of the World	276
58	Ankie Hoogvelt : The New International Division of Labour	281
59	Jon Bennett : Hunger and the Politics of World Food Supply	285
60	Thomas L. McPhail : Electronic Colonialism and the World Information Order	289
Part 15 Cities in the Modern World		292
61	Michael Pacione : Major Trends in World Urbanization	294
62	John R. Logan and Harvey L. Molotch : The City as a Growth Machine	298
63	Edward W. Soja : Economic Restructuring and the Internationalization of the Los Angeles Region	301
Part 16 Population, Health and Sickness		306
64	Roy Porter and Dorothy Porter : Sickness and Health in Pre-modern England	308
65	Ross Hume Hall : Health-care Systems and the Medical-Industrial Complex	312
66	Betsy Hartmann : Rethinking the World Population Problem	316
Part 17 Revolutions and Social Movements		321
67	Michael S. Kimmel : What is a Revolution?	323
68	Johan Galtung : The Green Movement: A Socio-historical Exploration	325
69	Deirdre Boden : Reinventing the Global Village: Communication and the Revolutions of 1989	327
Part 18 Sociological Research Methods		332
70	Robert A. Georges and Michael O. Jones : The Human Element in Fieldwork	334
71	Anna Pollert : Girls, Wives, Factory Lives: An Example of Fieldwork Research	335
72	Catherine Marsh : The Value of the Survey Method	338
73	Joanna Mack and Stewart Lansley : Absolute and Relative Poverty in Britain: An Illustration of Survey Work	340
74	John Heritage : Conversation Analysis	344

Part 19 Theoretical Perspectives in Sociology	347
75 Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels: The Materialist Conception of History	350
76 Emile Durkheim: The Field of Sociology	351
77 Max Weber: Meaning and Interpretation in Sociology	352
78 Harriet Taylor Mill: The Social Character of Gender	354
79 George H. Mead: Self and Society	356
80 Dorothy Emmet: The Notion of Function	358
81 John Sturrock: Saussure and the Origins of Structuralism	360
82 Anthony Giddens: Sociology and the Explanation of Human Behaviour	362
Notes	366
Index	378