

Table of Contents

Vorwort der Herausgeber	7
Editors' Preface	9
Walter Hölbling
Introduction	11
Henry Grunwald
"How To Become an American"	17
Peter Eppel
Exiled Austrians in the USA, 1938-1945: Immigration, Exile, Remigration, no Invitation to Return	25
Siegfried Beer
Exile Between Assimilation and Re-Identification: The Austrian Political Emigration to the USA, 1938-1945	39
Adi Wimmer
"Expelled and Banished:" The Exile Experience of Austrian 'Anschluß' Victims in Personal Histories and Literary Documents	51
Gerald Schöpfer
'Austrian Economics' in the USA	73
Josef Langer
The Careers and Failures of Austrian Social Science Immigrants to the United States (1930-1940)	83
Eva E. Sandis
Symbolic Ethnicity Among Immigrants to the USA from Austria-Hungary	101
Jarostaw Rokicki
National Symbols Restructured. Polish Ethnic Groups in the United States of America	111

Ivan Čizmić Letters of Croatian Priests from the United States to Croatia About the Life of Croatian Immigrants, 1894-1940	127
Majda Kodrič Slovene Emigration to the United States and the Establishment of Ethnic Communities	149
Anna Maria Martellone Italian Immigrants, Party Machines, Ethnic Brokers in City Politics, from the 1880s to the 1930s	171
Kenneth Payne An Italian-American Perspective on the Dream: John Fante's Wait Until Spring, Bandini	189
Kent Bales From Émigré to Ethnic: Form, Subject, and Audience in Emigrant Hungarian Writing	203
Walter Grünzweig "The Road to America": Intercultural Dimensions of Austrian-American Literature Following 1938	223
Christian Mair An Exploratory Study of Some Literary Reflections of Immigrant Bilingualism in Dos Passos' Works	235
Nada Šabec Language Maintenance and Ethnic Identity in two Cleveland American Slovene Communities	253
Bernhard Kettemann "Words don't come easy" – German as an Immigrant Language in the USA	269
Biographical Notes	285