

CONTENTS

List of figures	page x
List of tables	xi
Preface	xv

- 1 Introduction: the weight of finance in European societies
Y. CASSIS (University of Geneva) 1
- 2 Banking and industrialization: Rondo Cameron twenty years on
SIDNEY POLLARD AND DIETER ZIEGLER (University of Bielefeld) 17

Part I FINANCIAL SECTOR AND ECONOMY

- 3 The domestic commercial banks and the City of London, 1870–1939
P. L. COTTRELL (University of Leicester) 39
- 4 Banks and state in France from the 1880s to the 1930s: the impossible advance of the banks
ANDRÉ GUESLIN (University Blaise Pascal -Clermont II-) 63
- 5 An overview on the role of the large German banks up to 1914
RICHARD TILLY (University of Münster) 93
- 6 Banks and economic development: comments
HAROLD JAMES (Princeton University) 113

Part II FINANCIAL ELITES AND SOCIETY

- 7 Financial elites and British society, 1880–1950 121
M. J. DAUNTON (University College London)
- 8 Bankers in French society, 1860s–1960s 147
ALAIN PLESSIS (University of Paris X)
- 9 The banker in German society, 1890–1930 161
DOLORES L. AUGUSTINE (Sweet Briar College/Freie Universität Berlin)
- 10 Financial elites and society: comments 187
JOSÉ HARRIS (University of Oxford)

Part III FINANCIAL INTERESTS AND POLITICS

- 11 The influence of the City over British economic policy, c. 1880–1960 193
E. H. H. GREEN (University of Oxford)
- 12 The political influence of bankers and financiers in France in the years, 1850–1960 219
HUBERT BONIN (University of Bordeaux III)
- 13 Banks and banking in Germany after the First World War: strategies of defence 243
GERALD D. FELDMAN (University of California, Berkeley)
- 14 Banks and bankers in the German interwar depression 263
HAROLD JAMES (Princeton University)
- 15 Finance and politics: comments 283
M. J. DAUNTON (University College London)

Part IV FINANCE AND FINANCIERS IN SMALLER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

- 16 Finance and financiers in Switzerland, 1880–1960 293
YOUSSEF CASSIS AND JAKOB TANNER (with Fabienne Debrunner) (University of Geneva and University of Basel)
- 17 Finance and financiers in Belgium, 1880–1940 317
G. KURGAN-VAN HENTENRYK (Free University of Bruxelles)

18	The political economy of banking: retail banking and corporate finance in Sweden, 1850–1939 MATS LARSSON AND HÅKAN LINDGREN (University of Upsala)	337
Part V THE RISE OF EXTRA-EUROPEAN FINANCIAL CENTRES
19	Money and power: the shift from Great Britain to the United States. KATHLEEN BURK (Imperial College, London)	359
20	The Yokohama Specie Bank during the period of the restored gold standard in Japan (January 1930–December 1931) HIROAKI YAMAZAKI (University of Tokyo)	371
21	International financial centres in Asia, the Middle East and Australia: a historical perspective GEOFFREY JONES (University of Reading)	405
22	Extra-European financial centres: comments MIRA WILKINS (Florida International University)	429
	Index	437

FIGURES

5.1	Mean realized returns on traded securities, Germany, 1880-1911	page 106
5.2	Realized rate of return on German bank shares, 1870-1913	109
20.1	Changes in the rate of profit of the Yokohama Specie Bank and the Mitsui Bank, 1929-1932	389
20.2	Money-flow between the Shanghai branch and other branches of the Yokohama Specie Bank in July 1932	399
20.3	Money-flow between the Hong Kong branch and other branches of the Yokohama Specie Bank in July 1932	400
20.4	Money-flow between the Singapore branch and other branches of the Yokohama Specie Bank in July 1932	401

TABLES

3.1	Employment by the financial sector, Britain, 1871–1931	42
3.2	Output at constant factor cost, Britain, 1871–1931	44
3.3	An approximate of FIR for Britain, 1880–1938	44
3.4	Scottish and Irish bank offices relative to the UK domestic banking system and UK population, 1871–1921	46
3.5	The English and Welsh banking system, 1871–1921	46
4.1	Composition of the French money supply (M1) from 1880 to 1913	64
4.2	Composition of the French money supply (M1) from 1913 to 1938	65
4.3	Stock-market capitalization and national income in France, 1913 and 1966	68
4.4	Elements in the composition of Parisian inheritances, 1847–1911	69
4.5	Stock-market capitalization and national income in France, 1913, 1929 and 1937	73
4.6	Composition of deposits in France, 1891–1913	74
4.7	Composition of deposits in France, 1913–1937	78
4.8	Index of nominal growth of deposits in the six French big banks and the Caisses d'Épargne	78
4.9	Changes in estimated ratio of private assets to loans and advances by the six French big deposit banks	83

4.10	Financing of French business: rise of the public and semi-public organizations	85
4.11	Estimate of the number of inhabitants per bank and banking agency at the end of 1929	86
4.12	Estimate of bank assets and the collection of deposits in dollars per inhabitant at the end of 1929	88
5.1	Assets of German financial institutions, 1860–1913	96
5.2	Assets in Germany, 1875–1913	96
5.3	Assumed asset yields and asset shares in bank portfolio, Germany, 1880–1913	99
5.4	Assumed asset yields and asset shares in British capital market portfolio, 1882–1913	100
5.5	Indicators of enterprise growth and sources of finance, Germany, 1880–1911	102
5.6	Average changes in long-term debt of German enterprises, 1880–1911	102
5.7	Rate of return on ordinary shares, bond rate and share of issues of ordinary shares in total industrial issues, London and Berlin, 1883–1912	103
5.8	Mean and variance of realized returns, securities traded on Berlin Stock Exchange, 1870–1913	107
7.1	Economy, state and civil society relations	129
9.1	Titles of nobility among very wealthy businessmen according to sector	165
9.2	Occupations of the businessmen's sons in Wilhelmine Germany	166
9.3	Occupations of the businessmen's fathers-in-law in Wilhelmine Germany	169
9.4	Social structure of families the businessmen's children married into in Wilhelmine Germany	171
14.1	Liquidity ratios of German banks, 1905–1932	271
16.1	Changes in the numbers of banks, bank offices and total assets and liabilities, Switzerland, 1910–1960	296

16.2	Compared growth of national income and total bank assets, 1913–1973	297
16.3	Employment in the financial sector in Switzerland, 1888–1955	297
16.4	Swiss Banking: percentage of employment and contribution to national income, 1929–1955	298
16.5	Share of total assets by categories of banks, Switzerland, 1880–1965	298
16.6	Social origins of the Swiss banking elite, 1880–1965	307
16.7	Education of the Swiss banking elite, 1880–1960	308
17.1	The Belgian banking system in 1913 and in 1930	320
18.1	Money capital held by financial institutions in Sweden, 1918–1938	347
18.2	Concentration of commercial banks in Sweden, 1910–1940	348
20.1	A comparison of balance sheets between the Yokohama Specie Bank and Mitsui Bank, end of 1929	373
20.2	Details of loans from bankers of the London branch and the New York branch of the Yokohama Specie Bank, end of 1929	378
20.3	Assets and liabilities of the Yokohama Specie Bank related to its activity as a national policy-oriented bank, end of 1929	380
20.4	Changes in the Yokohama Specie Bank's operations related to its activity as a government policy-oriented bank, 1929–1931	383
20.5	The amount of 'controlled selling of dollars' by the Yokohama Specie Bank, 1930–1931	384
20.6	Ten largest customers in the Yokohama Specie Bank's 'controlled selling of dollars', 1930–1932	386
20.7	Details of 'controlled selling of dollars' by the Yokohama Specie Bank, 1930–1932	387
20.8	The disposal of losses accompanying the 'controlled selling of dollars' by the Yokohama Specie Bank, 1930–1932	388

20.9	Details of the balance sheets of the London branch, 1930–1931	391
20.10	Distribution of the Yokohama Specie Bank's operations at the London branch, January 1930	392
20.11	Distribution of the Yokohama Specie Bank's operations at the New York branch, January 1930	394
20.12	The position of the Yokohama Specie Bank in the New York money market, 1924–1928	395
20.13	Details of the balance sheets of the New York branch, 1930–1931	396
20.14	The scale of each branch of the Yokohama Specie Bank in terms of the amount of in-flow money in 1927	398
21.1	Financial centres in Asia, the Middle East and Australasia since 1919	407
21.2	International banking activity, 1965–1987: percentage share by leading countries	410
21.3	Assets and liabilities of Bahrain OBUs and Singapore ACUs in 1979	423