

CONTENTS

Preface / xiii

The Authors / xxi

---

PART ONE: THE DYNAMICS OF FEAR

---

1 How Fear Prevents People from Doing Their Best / 3

Key Themes ■ Achieving a Vision of Quality, Productivity, and Innovation ■ Three Cases

2 The Boundaries of Fear / 13

What Others Have Said About Fear ■ About Our Field Research
■ Our Definitions ■ Limits of the Topic ■ Definitional “Yes-
Buts” ■ Refining the Definition ■ Presentation of Research Data

---

PART TWO: HOW FEAR OPERATES IN ORGANIZATIONS

---

3 Undiscussables: Secrets That Everyone Knows / 29

What Is an Undiscussable? ■ What People Are Not Talking
About ■ Themes and Observations ■ Illustrations of Undiscussables

4 The Repercussions of Speaking Up / 41

What People Are Afraid to Lose ■ Loss of Credibility and the Power of Labels ■ Characteristics of Subtle, Indirect Repercussions ■ The Abrasive Boss and Immediate, Direct Repercussions ■ Other Repercussions ■ How Real Are the Repercussions? ■ The Other Reasons for Not Speaking Up

5 The High Cost of Fear / 55

Negative Feelings About the Organization ■ Negative Impact on Quality or Productivity ■ Negative Feelings About Oneself ■ Negative Emotions and Other Negative Effects ■ Positive Effects ■ Can Fear Be a Positive Motivator? ■ The Cumulative Impact of Fear

6 Behaviors That Create Fear / 71

Abrasive and Abusive Conduct by Managers and Supervisors ■ Ambiguous Behavior by Managers and Supervisors ■ Poorly Managed Personnel Systems ■ The Culture of the Organization

7 Cycles of Mistrust That Perpetuate Fear / 85

Self-Interest, Mistrust, and Fear ■ The Cycle of Mistrust ■ Negative Assumptions, Self-Protective Strategies, and Reinforcing Perceptions ■ Reciprocal Self-Protective Strategies ■ Triggering the Cycle with Unrelated Behaviors and Events ■ What Kind of a Workplace Is This?

---

PART THREE: STRATEGIES FOR A HIGH-TRUST WORK ENVIRONMENT

---

8 Build Relationships Without Fear / 103

The New Vision ■ Relationships Between a Boss and a Subordinate ■ Putting the Core Behaviors to Work ■ The Key Is Changing Assumptions ■ Easy to Say, Harder to Do ■ Skills Required of Managers

9 Acknowledge the Presence of Fear / 117

Start Small and Go Slowly ■ Overcome Denial ■ Use a Checklist of Possible Symptoms and Costs of Fear ■ Share Your Concerns with Your Leadership Team ■ Model What You Want

10 Pay Attention to Interpersonal Conduct / 131

Shades of Gray: The Conduct People Need to Avoid ■ Establishing Positive Group Norms ■ Using the Gray Scale to Establish a Standard ■ Coaching Subordinate Leaders ■ Working with Resistant Subordinate Leaders ■ Fostering Organizational Commitment to Positive Interpersonal Behavior

11 Value Criticism: Reward the Messenger / 153

Why and How the Messenger Gets Shot ■ Hearing the Bad News ■ Seeking Bad News ■ Rewarding Messengers ■ A Case in Point

12 Reduce Ambiguous Behavior / 169

Invite People In and Help Them to Feel Welcome ■ Give as Much Clear Information as Possible ■ Do Not Put People into Double-Binds

13 Discuss the Undiscussables / 185

The Informal Introduction ■ Directly Introduce the Concept ■ Focus on the Undiscussables of Your Group ■ Handle Undiscussables with Care ■ Handling the “Now Whats?” ■ Action Plans and Follow-Up ■ Working with Hard-Core Undiscussables ■ The Ongoing Search

14 Collaborate on Decisions / 199

A Simple Model for Decision Making ■ Worries About Collaborative Decision Making ■ The Role of the Leader ■ Becoming Aware of Current Decision-Making Patterns ■ Seeking Input ■ Preparing for Collaboration ■ Moving from Participation to Collaboration ■ What If Consensus Does Not Work? ■ The Impact of the Leader ■ Communicating About Decisions That Have Been Made

15 Challenge Worst-Case Thinking / 217

Worst-Case Thinking Is Tied to Change ■ How to Recognize Worst-Case Thinking ■ Identifying the Worst Case and the Most Likely Case ■ Building Plans of Action for Each Case

---

PART FOUR:
CONCLUSION: CREATING A QUALITY ORGANIZATION

---

16 People Are Ready for a Workplace Without Fear / 233

Additional Steps with Your Work Team ■ Reducing Fear with Peers ■ Reducing Fear with Your Supervisor ■ Challenges of the Path ■ People Are Ready ■ A Changing View of People

References / 245

Index / 247