

TABLE OF CONTENT

Chapter One

INTRODUCTION: THE DILEMMA OF MONEYLENDING	1
-------------------------------------------	---

Chapter Two

MONEY, MONEYLENDERS AND MONEYLENDING: A CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK

1. Rationalization and the Social Meaning of Money	18
2. Market Expansion and the Rise of Money	25
3. Moral or Market: The Moneylenders' Dilemma	31
4. Methodological Issues	38

Chapter Three

BANTUL SUBDISTRICT AND THE SURROUNDINGS

1. Location and Government Administration	50
2. Population, Employment and Economic Conditions	53
3. Market, Trade and Moneylending	58
4. Financial Institutions and Social Structures	61

Chapter Four

MONEY IN THE COMMUNITY

1. People's Perception of Money	75
2. The Practical Uses of Money	87
3. Is Money a Means of Rationalization? From Rationalization to Alienation	101

Chapter Five

THE PRACTICES OF MONEYLENDERS

- | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1. Social Profile of Moneylenders and Their Customers | 107 |
| 2. Patterns of Relationship Between Moneylenders and Their Customers | 120 |
| 3. Interlinks among Moneylenders and Between Moneylenders and Banks | 133 |

Chapter Six

THE INSEPARABILITY OF SOCIO-ECONOMIC ASPECTS IN MONEYLENDING

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1. How to Run a Moneylending Business? | 147 |
| 2. Procedures, Obligations and Sanctions Related to Moneylending | 157 |
| 3. Moneylending and Commercial Development | 166 |
| 3. Overcoming two Obstacles: Religion and State | 174 |

Chapter Seven

CONCLUDING REMARKS

183

The Changing Face of Moneylenders:
From "Loan Sharks" to "Agents of Development"

GLOSSARY

195

REFERENCES

197

LIST OF TABLES

table	page
3.1. Major Land Uses in Kecamatan Bantul	53
3.2. Population, Gender and Location	54
3.3. Distribution of Employment	55
3.4. Contribution of Each Sector to the Gross Regional Domestic Product at the End of Pelita III	57
3.5. The Main Loan Sources of Respondents (%)	62
4.1. The Function of Money in Society (%)	76
4.2. Who Have Manage Money in a Household? (%)	85
4.3. The Use of Money in Practical Everyday Life	88
5.1. Sex, Age, Marital Status and Education of Moneylenders	107
5.2. Employment Status of Moneylenders	110
5.3. Employment/Business Status and Family Size of Moneylenders	112
5.4. Household Income of Moneylenders	114
5.5. The Employment of Customers	116
5.6. The Income of Customers per Month (Rp.,%)	118
5.7. The Education of Customers (%)	119
5.8. The Nature of Relations between Moneylenders and their Customers	127
5.9. Net Interest Gained by the Four Moneylenders	136
5.10. Additional Capital Resources of Moneylenders	142
6.1. Occupational Backgrounds of Moneylenders	148
6.2. Main Sources of Starting Capital for Moneylenders	151
6.3. The Wish that One's Children will also Become Moneylenders	156

6.4.	Type of Loans and their Requirements	159
6.5.	Credits of Moneylenders and their Use by Traders and Entrepreneurs	167

LIST OF MAPS

1.	Indonesia	51
2.	Java, Yogyakarta and Bantul	52