

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Executive summary .....	7
Introduction .....	17
Chapter 1. Patterns of economic growth in OECD countries .....	19
Chapter 2. The changing role of innovation in growth performance .....	27
Innovation and technological change have become more central to economic performance.....	27
Technology cycles have shortened .....	32
Market-based financing is now more important in funding innovation .....	32
Financial systems are not equally effective in funding new firms.....	33
Venture capital is important in supporting new technology-based firms and risky projects.....	34
A wider diversity of knowledge requirements implies a need for networks and openness.....	36
Networks and alliances between firms are growing rapidly.....	38
Foreign direct investment and trade links allow access to global knowledge .....	40
Start-up firms play an important role in the innovation process .....	42
Links to the science base are more important than in the past.....	42
Knowledge-intensive business services are of growing importance for innovation.....	44
Human capital is a key factor in innovation and skilled workers have become more mobile .....	44
The role of ICT in innovation .....	47
Chapter 3. The role of information and communications technology in growth performance .....	49
The aggregate evidence – significant investment in ICT and a rising contribution to growth .....	50
Evidence at industry and firm level.....	53
The industry level: ICT increases productivity in using industries.....	53
The firm level: ICT improves productivity by enabling organisational innovation.....	55
A new role for ICT in the 1990s? .....	56
Reaping the benefits from new ICT: are OECD economies on divergent paths? .....	62
Chapter 4. Policies that support growth based on innovation and information technology .....	73
Links between policy and economic performance .....	73
Policies to promote innovation and technological change.....	75
Establishing a favourable climate for business .....	75
New types of financing and improved risk management .....	76
Funding for science and high-risk research.....	76
Policies to strengthen co-operation and encourage diffusion .....	77
Human capital to support innovation and technological change.....	78
Enhancing the benefits of investment in ICT .....	78
Some final considerations.....	79
Notes .....	81
Bibliography .....	85