

Contents

Abbreviations	page ix
Preface	1
Introduction	3
1 A Time and Place for Leisure	13
The industrial environment	13
Time and inclination	22
The ability to pay	27
2 The Industrialization of Popular Culture	34
The traditional festival	34
The working-class parish fair	37
Conflicts and resolutions	43
The segregation of festival culture	48
Socialist festival culture	53
Blueprint for the future	56
3 The Lubricant of Leisure	63
Patterns of consumption	63
Workplace drinking	69
Drink and the family	76
Drink and the labour movement	81
Cultural aid to social stimulant	85
4 From the Street to the Stage	92
Street entertainment	92
The taming of popular entertainment	94
Tingel-Tangels and music halls	99
The dance craze	103
Real entertainment	108
5 The Organization of Leisure	114
Preconditions of organization	114
The beginnings of associational life	117

Contents

An 'alternative' associational movement	121
Club life	129
Spontaneity to organization	132
6 The Struggle for Control	139
The social question and 'rational recreation'	139
Useful pursuits	145
Lungs of the city	154
Social reform or social control?	160
7 From Control to Commercialization	169
Entertaining the masses	169
The rise of the cinema	172
Commercial culture versus working-class culture	178
The triumph of commercial culture?	183
8 Conclusions: a Working-Class Leisure Culture?	189
Bibliography	196
Index	211