

---

Contents

Introduction .....	1
---------------------------	----------

Herman Steensma and Riël Vermunt

Behavioral and Attitudinal Reactions to (In)justice .....	1
Macrojustice.....	3
References.....	5

PART I BEHAVIORAL AND ATTITUDINAL REACTIONS TO (IN)JUSTICE

Chapter 1 Coping with Life Stress: Injustice and the Question “Who Is Responsible?”.....	9
---	----------

Leo Montada

Justice and the Responsibility for Harmful Events .....	9
Causality, Responsibility, and Liability to Blame: Some Distinctions.....	10
Factors Affecting Perceived Injustice of Critical Life Events .....	12
Paths to Subjective Justice.....	15
Coping Strategies of Victims to Avoid the Perception of Injustice .....	15
Excursus: Adaptive and Nonadaptive Aspects of Self-Blame.....	18
Victimization after Critical Life Events: Coping Strategy of Observers to Avoid the Perception of Injustice .....	20
Excursus: Blaming the Victim or Pointing to Control against Victimization.....	23
Normative Implications of Research on Life Stress and Justice .....	26
References.....	27

Chapter 2 Interactions between Law and Everyday Thinking in the Social Categorization of Events..... 31

Sally Lloyd-Bostock

Law and Everyday Thinking .....	32
Social Categorization of Events .....	35
The Social Context .....	37
Automaticity .....	39
Victims and Inspectors Compared .....	41
Injured Victims .....	41
Factory Inspectors .....	45
Conclusion.....	46
References.....	48

Chapter 3 Social Dilemmas, Shared Resources, and Social Justice..... 49

David M. Messick

Introduction .....	49
Experimental Task .....	51
Individual Self-Restraint .....	52
Self-Interest or Group Interest .....	54
Maintaining the Pool .....	55
Normative Influences.....	56
Structural Solutions .....	58
Social Justice.....	64
References.....	67

Chapter 4 Procedural Processes and Legal Institutions ..... 71

Tom R. Tyler and E. Allan Lind

Conceptual Contribution .....	72
Empirical Contribution .....	72
Acceptance of the Procedural Justice Findings.....	73
Methodological Robustness .....	74
Generalization of Procedural Justice Effects .....	77
The Evaluation of Authorities and Institutions .....	77
Behavior .....	78
Other Arenas .....	79
Allocation Decisions.....	79
New Directions .....	80

Examining the Meaning of Procedural Justice .....	82
Outcome Effects on Procedural Fairness.....	93
Conclusion.....	94
References.....	95

Chapter 5 Aspects of Distributive and Procedural Justice in Quality of Working Life ..... 99

Jacques Allegro, Henk Kruidenier, and Herman Steensma

Introduction .....	99
A Model of Humanization and Quality of Working Life .....	99
A Pure Social Goal .....	100
More Say .....	101
A Multidimensional Approach.....	101
Focus on Issues Concerning Introduction of Planned Change .....	101
Facts on Quality of Working Life in The Netherlands .....	102
Inequality in the Distribution of Quality of Working Life.....	103
Humanization of Working Life and Automation .....	104
Cause .....	105
Problem Definition .....	105
Theoretical, "Planned Change," and Methodological Backgrounds .....	106
Application at Automation .....	108
An Example .....	108
Introduction .....	109
The Organization at the End of 1974 .....	109
Planning of the Project .....	109
Discussion .....	111
Quality of Working Life and Theories of Justice .....	111
References.....	114

PART II MACROJUSTICE

Chapter 6 Social Justice, Income Distribution, and Social Stratification in The Netherlands: A Review ..... 119

Piet Hermkens and David van Kreveld

Introduction .....	119
The Distribution of Incomes .....	121
Possible Causes of the Income Distribution.....	124

Judgmental Studies on Income Distribution .....	127
Concluding Remarks .....	133
References.....	135

Chapter 7 What Is "Fair" in Japan?..... 139

Louise H. Kidder and Susan Muller

Tales of Samurai Honor .....	139
Obligations and Social Courtesy.....	140
No Word for "Fair" .....	141
Speaking Humbly and Honorifically .....	144
Men and Women Talking.....	144
Language as a Social Issue .....	146
Ranks—Verbal and Nonverbal Markers .....	147
Another Vertical Society .....	148
Collective versus Individual Well-Being .....	148
Controlling Oneself Rather Than Others.....	149
Horizontal Ties That Obviate What Is "Fair" .....	150
Wa—The Japanese Way, the Way of Harmony .....	150
Uchi—My Home, My Group .....	152
Conclusion.....	152
References.....	153

Chapter 8 Distributive Justice and Social Welfare Institutions..... 155

Guillermina Jasso

Introduction .....	155
Basic Elements of the Theory of the Distributive-Justice Force .....	157
The Individual's Sense of Distributive Justice .....	157
Distributive-Justice Effects at the Social Level .....	161
A Sample of Predictions .....	162
The Social Welfare Postulate .....	164
Basic Formulas of Social Welfare .....	164
Basic Theoretical Relations Embodied in Social Welfare .....	165
The Basic Social Welfare Institutions Predicted by the Theory of the Distributive-Justice Force .....	166
Institutions and Social Welfare Institutions .....	166
The Basic Social Welfare Institutions.....	167

Selection of Valued Goods .....	169
Collectivistic Model of Selection of Valued Goods.....	170
Social Welfare in Three Kinds of Goods Regimes .....	171
The Guardian Chooses a Valued Good .....	178
Cloister and Society: Social Welfare Effects of Monastic Institutions .....	181
Preliminary Definitions and Notation.....	182
Preliminary Results .....	183
The Effect of the Cloister, by Type of Valued Good .....	183
Toward a New Perspective on Monastic Institutions .....	186
Appendix: Relations between the Arithmetic Mean, the Geometric Mean, and the Inequality in a Distribution .....	191
Summary .....	190
References.....	192
Chapter 9 Criteria for Distributive Justice in a Productive Context .....	197
Bert Overlaet and Erik Schokkaert
Introduction .....	197
Method.....	197
Results .....	199
Income Differences in a Productivity Context.....	199
Effort versus Output .....	203
Distribution of Profits versus Distribution of Losses .....	205
Conclusion.....	207
References.....	207
Chapter 10 Social Distance on the Income DistributionDimension .....	209
Bernard M. S. van Praag and Nico L. van der Sar
Introduction .....	209
The Concepts .....	211
The Income Evaluation Question as a Tool.....	213
The Social Filter Process.....	217
Operationalization and Estimation.....	220
The Social Distance Concept .....	221
Empirical Results .....	224
Discussion and Conclusion.....	225
References.....	227

Chapter 11 Explaining Variation in Attitudes toward Income Equality ..... 229

A. Szirmai

Introduction .....	229
Theoretical Approaches to the Study of Egalitarian Tendencies.....	233
Theories of Absolute Deprivation .....	233
Status Theories .....	233
Location in Structures of Class and Authority .....	234
Cognitive Theories .....	235
Theories of Relative Deprivation .....	239
Long-Run Changes in Attitudes toward Inequality .....	242
Research Questions .....	242
Operationalizations .....	244
Dependent Variable .....	244
Inequality Aversion .....	245
Perceptions of Income Inequality .....	245
Secondary Incongruities.....	245
Relative Deprivation .....	245
Income .....	246
Class and Authority.....	246
Status Variables .....	246
System Blaming.....	247
Empirical Results .....	247
Direct Determinants of the Tendency to Equalize .....	249
Objective Determinants of the Tendency to Equalize .....	251
Intervening Variables.....	252
Conclusions .....	257
References.....	265

Chapter 12 Future Trends in the Study of Social Justice ..... 269

Herman Steensma and Riël Vermunt

Introduction .....	269
Trends in Social Justice Research.....	271
Cross-Cultural Research .....	272
Interdisciplinary Research .....	273

More Applied Research.....	274
Methodological Developments .....	275
Theoretical Developments .....	276
Conclusion.....	277
References.....	278
Author Index.....	279
Subject Index.....	285