Contents

1. What Is the Problem?
   Diminishing Support for the Current System  2
   The Inescapable Debate  5

2. Economic Issues in Health Care  8
   Consumption and Insurance  8
   Production  23
   Competition and the Market for Health Insurance  27
   A Dilemma  37

3. Organization and Financing  38
   Health Care Expenditures  38
   Sources of Payment  53
   The Role of Government  60
   The Uninsured  73

4. International Comparisons  78
   Differences in Costs  79
   Measures of Health Status  89
   Differences in Organization  92
   International Competition  94
   Implications of Foreign Experience  101
SERIOUS AND UNSTABLE CONDITION

Appendix A: Intertemporal and International Comparisons of Health Care Expenditures 103
Appendix B: Determinants of Health Care Spending 107

5. The Terms of the Debate 109
Voluntary Incrementalism 110
Mandatory Employment-Based Insurance 119
Comprehensive Restructuring 128
The Special Problem of Long-Term Care 134
State Initiatives 135
A 1990s Agenda for Health Care Financing 137
The Universal-Access Single-Payer Health Plan 140

Index 153

Tables
3-1. Growth in U.S. Health Care Spending, Selected Years, 1950–90 39
3-2. Concentration of Health Care Outlays, Selected Countries and Selected Years, 1928–88 51
3-3. Limits on Coverage among Health Insurance Plans 55
3-4. Outlays and Recipients of Personal Health Care Expenditures, Selected Years, 1960–89 57
3-5. Source of Payments to Major Health Care Providers, Selected Years, 1960–89 58
3-6. Characteristics of the Uninsured 74
4-1. Total Health Expenditures in Selected Countries, 1987 80
4-2. Use of Health Care, Selected Countries, 1987 83
4-3. Mean Length of Hospital Stay for Selected Diseases, Selected Countries 84
4-4. Reported Admission Rates for Nine Common Surgical Procedures, Selected Countries, 1980 85
4-5. Life Expectancy in the United States and U.S. Rank among Selected Countries, by Age and Sex 90
4-6. Public Expenditures as a Share of Health Care Spending, Selected Countries, 1987 93
4-7. Reimbursement and Planning Arrangements in Selected OECD Countries 96
5-1. Proposed Health Care Trust Fund, 1991 146
Figures
2-1. The Benefits Curve 11
3-1. Elderly Population in the United States, Selected Years, 1950-2040 43