

Contents

Preface	vii
1 The Prostitution Scene	1
An ordinary day	1
Tricks	6
The prostitution market in Oslo	9
2 The Main Participants	15
"If things had been okay I never would have started:"
Becoming a prostitute	15
A life under the influence . . .	23
The customer – faceless and nameless	25
3 Inside Prostitution	40
In it for the money: The economics of prostitution from the women's point of view	40
Fast fuck: The women's view of what the customer buys	50
Customer violence	57
"It's not me he's fucking:" The women's defense mechanisms	63
Is there anything good about it? What ties the women to prostitution	75
The buyer's trick – an entire project	84
What is he paying for? How customers experience the trick	90
4 After Prostitution	106
"I've left my body on the street:" Delayed damage to the women	106
Modest dreams: The women's hopes for the future	117

5	Indoor and Outdoor Prostitution	124
	A shifting market: Different types of prostitution	124
6	What Ever Happened to the Pimp?	133
	Prostitutes' views of pimps	133
	Who are the pimps? Pimps reported to the police	140
	Non-violent boyfriend-pimps	143
	Violent boyfriend-pimps	146
	"Stable" pimps	150
	A familiar face: The pimps that get caught	156
	The pimp's functions	160
7	The Fight against Prostitution	173
	Opposition to prostitution	173
	Prostitution projects: About Scandinavian assistance programs	188
	Two suggestions for criminal law reforms	199
	Convenient images – harmful images	205
	Appendix: Sources of Information	209
	Bibliography	216
	Index	220