
CONTENTS

List of figures ix

List of tables xi

Preface xii

PART I INTRODUCTION

I WHAT IS POLITICAL SOCIOLOGY? 3

Sociology and political science 3

The origins and development of political sociology 8

The remit of political sociology 12

PART II THE STATE, POWER AND AUTHORITY

INTRODUCTION 17

2 THE STATE AND SOCIETY 20

Introduction 20

The origins of the state 23

The development of the modern state 29

The Marxist concept of the state 39

Conclusion 42

Contents

- 3 POWER, AUTHORITY AND LEGITIMACY 43
Defining and analysing power 43
Authority and legitimacy 50
Legitimacy and compliance 55
- 4 THE DISTRIBUTION OF POWER 58
Introduction 58
Elite theory 59
Pluralism 67
Totalitarianism 70
Democracy 78
The distribution of power: an overview 83

PART III POLITICAL BEHAVIOUR AND SOCIETY INTRODUCTION 89

- 5 POLITICAL SOCIALISATION 92
Introduction 92
A theory of political socialisation 96
A critique of political socialisation theory 108
- 6 POLITICAL PARTICIPATION 110
Introduction 110
Forms of political participation 111
The extent of political participation 116
Explaining political participation 120
Conclusion 127
- 7 POLITICAL RECRUITMENT 128
Introduction 128
A model of political recruitment 130
Problems of political recruitment theory 147

PART IV POLITICAL COMMUNICATION, PUBLIC OPINION AND IDEOLOGY

INTRODUCTION 151

8 POLITICAL COMMUNICATION 153

Introduction 153

Theories of communication 154

The characteristics of political communication 160

The factors influencing political communication 161

Conclusion 163

9 PUBLIC OPINION AND SOCIETY 166

Defining public opinion 166

The characteristics of public opinion 169

The formation of public opinion 173

Political communication and public opinion 179

10 IDEOLOGY AND SOCIETY 181

What is ideology? 181

The characteristics and functions of ideology 182

The Marxist view of ideology 183

Ideology, political culture and the end of the ideology thesis 186

Ideology, values and attitudes 190

Ideology and society 193

PART V REVOLUTION, DEVELOPMENT AND MODERNISATION

INTRODUCTION 197

11 REVOLUTION 200

Introduction 200

The Marxist view of revolution 202

A non-Marxist view of revolution 206

The causes of revolution 211

Revolution and societal change 217

Contents

12 DEVELOPMENT AND MODERNISATION THEORY 219

Introduction 219

The political-development school 220

The nation-building school 222

The modernisation school 223

Underdevelopment and dependency theory 227

Modernisation and development as industrialisation 229

Changing society: an overview 236

PART VI CONCLUSION

13 WHITHER POLITICAL SOCIOLOGY? 241

Introduction 241

The achievements of political sociology 241

What remains to be done 243

Bibliography 247

Index 259

FIGURES

- Figure 3.1* A continuum of social and political obedience or compliance (Source: Held (1984), pp. 301–2) 56
- Figure 4.1* Classifying elite theorists (Source: based on Parry (1969), Chapter II) 61
- Figure 4.2* Pareto's types of elites (Source: Pareto, Mind and Society, Vol. 4, Sec. 2178, 2227, 2274, 2275) 64
- Figure 4.3* Democracy: consent and control mechanisms 81
- Figure 5.1* A model of political socialisation 97
- Figure 5.2* The stages of childhood political socialisation (Source: Easton and Dennis (1969)) 98
- Figure 6.1* A hierarchy of political participation 112
- Figure 6.2* Socio-economic characteristics and political participation (Source: Milbrath and Goel (1977), pp. 86–122) 118
- Figure 6.3* A model of political participation 122
- Figure 7.1* A model of political recruitment 136
- Figure 7.2* The primary, secondary and tertiary opportunity structures 138
- Figure 8.1* A basic communication model 159
- Figure 8.2* Maletzke's communication model (Source: Maletzke (1963), as adapted by McQuail and Windahl (1981)) 164
- Figure 9.1* The formation of opinion: a model 173
- Figure 9.2* A typology of media effects (Source: McQuail (1987), p. 258) 176
- Figure 9.3* A typology of media effects: definitions (Source: McQuail (1987), pp. 258–9) 177

Figures

- Figure 11.1* The causes of revolution 212
- Figure 12.1* Political development: variables and crises (Source: Binder et al. (1971)) 221
- Figure 12.2* Theories of modernisation (Sources: Rostow (1950); Organski (1965)) 223
- Figure 12.3* Apter's two models of modernisation (Source: Apter (1965)) 226

TABLES

- Table 6.1* A hierarchy of political participation in Britain, 1989 116
- Table 6.2* Types of political participation in Britain, 1984–85 121
- Table 7.1* The socio-economic background of British MPs, 1987 146
- Table 9.1* Proportion of 'don't knows' on devolution proposals for Scotland, 1976 167
- Table 9.2* Changes of opinion on MPs' pay in relation to respondents' information 168
- Table 9.3* Intensity of party preferences in Britain, 1990 169
- Table 9.4* Salience of problems facing Britain, February 1990 171
- Table 9.5* Consistency of opinion on Race Relations Bill, 1968 172