

Contents

Introduction	VII
The Categorial and Ontological Presuppositions of Austrian and Neoclassical Economics by PETER KOSLOWSKI	1
A Historical Perspective of Possible Bridges Between the Economic and the Natural Domains by NICHOLAS GEORGESCU-ROEGEN	21
The Meaning of General Equilibrium by MARTIN BECKMANN	51
The Meaning of Market Process by ISRAEL M. KIRZNER	61
Market Process as an Evolutionary Process by ALFRED BOSCH	77
Neoclassical and Austrian Theory of Economic Policy: Differences in Process Policies by REINHOLD VEIT	99
Neoclassical and Austrian Theory of Economic Policy: Differences in Constitutional Policies by DIETER SCHMIDTCHEN	123
General Equilibrium or Market Process: An Evaluation by JACK WISEMAN	145