

Contents

Part One The Environmental Structure of Advertising 1

Chapter One

Background, Environments, and Evolution 2

Viewpoints on Advertising 4

How Advertising Works 5

The Impact of Environment on Advertising 6

Some Important Definitions 8

Marketing 9

Communication 9

Advertising 9

Sales Promotion 9

Publicity 10

Public Relations 10

Personal Selling 10

Methods of Classifying Advertising 10

Audiences 10

Types of Advertisers 12

Media 12

Functions 13

The Scope of Advertising Worldwide 15

The Evolution of Modern Advertising 16

Origins of Advertising 16

Urbanization and the Rise of Mass Production 19

The Era of the Wholesaler 19

The Growth of Retail Advertising 20

Origins of the Advertising Agency 20

The Emergence of National Advertising 21

Case Study: National Biscuit Company 22

New Levels of Competition 24

Advertising in the Early 20th Century 24

Advertising in the 1920s 26

The Depression Years 28

World War II Advertising 30

The Postwar Years 31

Chapter Two

The Marketing Communication Environment 36

- Marketing Defined 37
- The Marketing Concept 38
- The Marketing Plan 40
 - Identifying Marketing Opportunities 41
 - Setting Marketing Objectives 42
 - Determining Marketing Strategy 43
- Advertising in the Promotion Mix 45
 - Promotion Strategies 47
 - Advertising Planning Decisions 48
- The Communication Concept 50
 - The Communication Planning Environment 50
 - Communication Defined 51
 - Field of Experience 52
 - Meaning 53
 - Signs and Symbols 54
- Elements of the Communication Process 55
 - Source and Encoding 55
 - The Message 59
 - The Media 60
 - Receivers and Decoding 61
 - Feedback 61
 - Noise 62
- Advertising's Communication Setting 63
- Advertising's Communicative Functions 65

Chapter Three

The Social Environment and Ethical Issues 72

- How Critics Look at Advertising 73
 - Scholars as Critics and Defenders of Advertising 73
 - The General Public as Critics 75
- Advertising Ethics 76
- Deception in Advertising 78
 - FTC Regulation 78
 - Puffery 79
 - Watchdogs 80
- Comparative Advertising 80
- Subliminal Advertising 81
- Bad Taste in Advertising 81
- Advertising and Children 84
- Advertising and Stereotypes 85
- Political Advertising 87
 - The Grounds for Criticism 88
 - Advertising Financing 88
 - A Look Ahead 90
- Advertising and Raising Expectations 90
- Advertising's Influence on the Media 90
 - Charges of Undue Control 92
 - Built-in Checks against Undue Influence 92
- Advertising and Freedom of Speech 92

Chapter Four

The Economic Environment 98

- The Economists' View of Advertising 99
 - 1890 to 1940 99
 - Modern Economists 101
- Advertising: Information or Persuasion? 101
- Advertising and Prices 105
 - Two Views 105
 - Retail versus National 106
- Advertising and Added Value 107
- Advertising and Consumer Choice 109
- Advertising and Industry Concentration 109
- Advertising's Influence on the Business Cycle 110
- Advertising and Aggregate Consumption 112
- Advertising as Media Subsidy 112
- The Duration Effects of Advertising 114

Chapter Five

The Regulatory Environment 120

- Advertising Regulation 121
- Areas of Advertising Control 123
- Regulation by the Federal Government 123
 - Food and Drug Administration 123
 - Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms 125
 - Federal Communications Commission 125
 - Patent Office 126
 - Library of Congress 126
 - Postal Service 126
 - Other Federal Controls 127
- Federal Trade Commission 127
 - Deceptive Advertising 129
 - Burden of Proof 129
 - Powers and Remedies 130
 - Affirmative Disclosures and Corrective Advertising 131
 - Advertising Substantiation 133
 - Children: A Special Market Segment 135
- State and Municipal Regulation 135
- Self-Regulation by the Advertising Industry 135
 - The NAD/NARB 136
 - Media Clearance 140
 - Individual Advertisers and Agencies 144
 - Advertising Associations 145
 - Trade Associations 145
 - The Advertising Press 146

Part Two

The Organizational Structure of Advertising 153

Chapter Six

Advertisers, Agencies, Media, and Suppliers 154

Advertisers 155

National Advertisers 155

Local (Retail) Advertisers 161

Advertising Agencies 164

What Advertising Agencies Do for Their Clients 164

Functions of the Modern Agency 167

Agency Compensation 172

Handling Competing Accounts 174

Media 176

Media Advertising Department 176

Media Representatives 183

Related Advertising Organizations 184

Production Services 184

Art Studios 185

Research Companies 186

Part Three

Advertising Campaign Planning: Strategy and Tactics

191

Chapter Seven

An Overview of Campaign Planning 192

What Is an Advertising Campaign? 193

The Marketing Mix: Basis for Campaign Plans 195

Product 196

Price 197

Channels of Distribution (Place) 198

Promotion 198

The Planning of Advertising 199

Environmental Considerations 200

General Marketing Considerations 201

Strategic Research Inputs 202

The Setting of Objectives 204

The Advertising Budget 205

Message and Media Strategy 206

The Plan in Action 206

Measuring the Effectiveness of Advertising 207

Adjustments to the Campaign 208

Chapter Eight

Strategic Research 210

- The Research Process 211
 - Information Needs 212
 - Sources of Data 213
 - Primary Data Gathering 213
 - Data as Input 213
- Planning Inputs 213
 - Consumer Research 214
 - Product Research 214
 - Market Analysis 217
 - Competitive Situation 220

Chapter Nine

Setting Objectives: Target Markets and Buyer Behavior 226

- Advertising Objectives 227
 - The Function of Advertising Objectives 228
 - Utilizing General Objectives 229
 - Key Inputs to Applying Specific Objectives 231
- Target Markets 231
 - Bases for the Targeting Decision 231
 - Types of Targeting Strategies 232
 - The Advantages of Targeting 233
 - Criteria for Defining Target Markets 233
- Buyer Behavior 239
 - Specific Advertising Objectives 239
 - Three Different Buying Processes 240

Chapter Ten

Determining the Advertising Budget 248

- The Budgeting Process 249
- Advertising as an Expense and as an Investment 251
- Budgeting Methods 253
 - Objective and Task 254
 - Percent of Sales 254
 - Unit of Sale 255
 - Competitive Spending 256
 - Quantitative Methods 256
 - Affordable and Arbitrary Methods 257
- Budgeting Influences 257

Chapter Eleven

Developing Advertising Message Strategy 262

- What Is Message Strategy? 263
 - Message Strategy as Differentiated from Tactics 263
 - Determining the Message Idea 264
 - The Copy Platform: The Creative Blueprint 268
 - Message Tactics: Elements of Ad Execution 271
- Types of Message Strategies 272

Classic Creative Approaches	274
Burnett's Inherent Drama	274
Reeves's Unique Selling Proposition	274
Ogilvy's Brand Image	275
Bernbach's Execution Emphasis	276
Trout and Reis's Positioning	276
Vaughn's Message Matrix	277
Creative Objectives	277
Long-Range versus Short-Range Objectives	278
Hierarchy of Creative Objectives	280
General versus Specific Objectives	280
Judging Message Ideas and Executions	283
Creativity and Message Strategy	283
Identifying Symbols	286
Trademarks, Brand Names, and Trade Names	286
Licensed Names	287
Trade Characters	288
Slogans	288
Obtaining and Retaining Protection for Identifying Symbols	289
Guidelines for Using Identifying Symbols	290

Chapter Twelve

Message Tactics: Print Advertising	294
Coordinating the Major Elements	295
Attracting Attention through Headlines	296
Types of Headlines	298
Subheads	300
Body Copy	300
Functions of a Layout	302
How the Layout Is Prepared	303
Qualities of an Effective Layout	306
Illustrations	307
Classifying Illustrations	308
Illustration Techniques and Color	309

Chapter Thirteen

Message Tactics: Radio and Television Commercials	314
Structure of Commercials	315
The Audience and Commercials	315
Radio Commercials	316
Types of Radio Commercials	316
Creating Effective Radio Commercials	318
Television Commercials	319
Coordinating Television and Radio Commercials	320
Television Storyboards	321
Types of Television Commercials	323
Television Presentation Techniques	328
Creating Effective Television Commercials	329
The Use of Color	333

Chapter Fourteen

Message Tactics: Production 336

- Decision Making in Advertising Production 337
- Producing Messages for the Print Media 338
 - Using Technology to Create the Message 338
 - Selecting the Type 338
 - Reproducing the Illustrations 342
 - Printing the Advertisement 344
 - Duplicating the Advertisement 347
- Producing Messages for the Electronic Media 347
- Producing the Television Commercial 348
 - Film or Videotape 348
 - Choosing Cast and Set 349
 - Using Modern Technology 350
 - Editing the Commercial 351
 - Duplicating the Original 351
 - Control over Quality and Cost 351
- Producing the Radio Commercial 353
 - Live versus Recording 356
 - Duplicating the Original 356

Chapter Fifteen

Planning Advertising Media Strategy 358

- Media Trends 360
 - Changes in Market Structure 360
 - Increase in Complexity of Media 361
 - Increase in Total Advertising Volume 362
 - Changes in Buying and Selling Methods 362
 - Availability of Product and Media Usage Data 365
 - Growth of New Media Technology 365
- Media Planning as Part of Marketing Strategy 368
- Developing the Media Plan 369
 - Setting Media Objectives 370
 - Defining the Target Market 372
 - Selecting Media and Allocating the Budget 372
 - Choosing Media Vehicles and Units 375
 - Scheduling 375
- Use of Media Models 376
- A Sample Media Plan 378

Chapter Sixteen

Media Tactics: Newspapers and Magazines 390

- Newspapers 391
 - Advantages of Newspaper Advertising 393
 - Limitations of Newspaper Advertising 396
 - Readership Patterns 396
 - Types of Advertising 397
 - Newspaper Sizes and Shapes 399
 - Rate Structure 400
 - Rate Comparisons 403
 - Factors to Consider in Buying Newspaper Space 404
 - Newspaper Supplements 406

Magazines	407
Types of Magazines	408
Advantages of Magazine Advertising	411
Limitations of Magazine Advertising	414
Kinds of Advertisers	415
Circulation and Readership Patterns	416
Magazine Sizes and Shapes	416
Rate Structure	418
Methods of Comparison	418

Chapter Seventeen

Media Tactics: Television and Radio 422

Television	423
Types of Advertising	424
Advantages of Television Advertising	426
Limitations of Television Advertising	428
Kinds of Users	428
How Television is Used	429
Measuring Broadcasting Audiences	432
Audience Trends	437
Rate Structure	438
Cost Comparisons	440
Radio	441
Types of Advertising	442
Types of Stations	442
Advantages of Radio Advertising	443
Limitations of Radio Advertising	444
Kinds of Users	444
How Radio Is Used	444
Programming Trends	444
Audience Measurement and Trends	446
Rate Structure	449

Chapter Eighteen

Media Tactics: Direct Mail, Out-of-Home, and Sales Promotion Media 452

Direct Mail	453
Related Concepts	454
Types of Direct Mail	455
Advantages of Direct Mail	456
Limitations of Direct Mail	458
Buying Direct Mail	458
Preparation of Direct Mail	460
Outdoor Advertising	461
Types of Outdoor Advertising	461
Advantages of Outdoor Media	464
Limitations of Outdoor Media	464
Kinds of Users	464
How Outdoor Advertising Is Bought	464

Transit Advertising	466
Types of Transit Advertising	467
Advantages of Transit Advertising	469
How Transit Advertising Is Bought	469
Sales Promotion Media	470
Point-of-Purchase Advertising	470
Packages and Package Inserts	472
Trade Shows and Exhibits	473
Sampling	474
Premiums	475
Coupons	475
Cents-Off Promotions	477
Contests, Sweepstakes, and Games	477
Other Advertising Media	479

Chapter Nineteen

Measuring the Effectiveness of Advertising	482
To Test or Not to Test	483
What Should Be Tested	484
Classification Schemes for Measuring Effectiveness	484
Pretesting and Posttesting	484
Communication and Sales Effects: Matching Appropriate Objectives	485
Communication Effects	485
Pretesting	486
Posttesting	491
Sales Effects	493
Pretesting	493
Posttesting	494

Appendix to Part Three: Advertising Campaigns	497
---	-----

Part Four

Special-Purpose Advertising

505

Chapter Twenty

Retail and Business-to-Business Advertising	506
Retail versus National Advertising	507
Trends in the Retail Mix	508
Promotional, Semipromotional, and Nonpromotional Stores	509
The Retailer's Communication Mix	511
Assistance to the Retail Advertiser	513
Cooperative Advertising	514
Business-to-Business Advertising	515
Characteristics of the Business Market	517
Business Advertising Objectives	517
Organizing for Business Advertising	519
The Business-to-Business Communication Mix	519
The Business Advertisement	524

Chapter Twenty-One

Institutional Advertising 528

- What Is Institutional Advertising? 529
- Types of Institutional Advertising 532
 - Image Advertising 532
 - Advocacy Advertising 534
- The Advertising Council 536
- The Use of Institutional Advertising 539
- Organizing for Institutional Advertising 540
 - Agencies 540
 - Corporate and Noncorporate Departments 542
- Coordination with Product Advertising 543
- The Role of Research 544
- Institutional Advertising Media and Message Strategy 544
 - Media Strategy 544
 - Message Strategy 545
 - Publicity 547

Chapter Twenty-Two

International Advertising 552

- What Is International Advertising? 554
- Reasons for the Growth of International Advertising 555
 - Rise of the Multinational Corporation 555
 - Increase in Global Brands 557
 - Trade Agreements 557
 - Increased Trade in Goods and Services 558
 - Worldwide Improvement in Living Standards 558
 - Innovations in Communication and Transportation 559
- Organizing for International Advertising 559
- Legal Considerations 562
- International Planning and Strategy 563
 - The Marketing Mix 565
 - Creative Strategy 566
 - Research 570
 - Media Strategy 571
- Advertising in Communist Countries 574
- International Advertising and Public Policy 576

Appendix
Sources of Information about Advertising	580
Glossary	584
Index	591