

Contents

Introduction

How to Organize Prevention: Suggestions for Innovations in Social Work Gaby Flösser/Hans – Uwe Otto	3
--	---

Part I

Socio – Political Issues of Prevention

Social Europe. Welfare State Trajectories of the European Community Stephan Leibfried	17
Family Policy and the Liberal State Robert Dingwall	61
Professional Help and Solidarity Hauke Brunkhorst	73
Prevention as a Component of Regulation in 'Risk Societies' Klaus P. Japp	93
Individualization of Family Structures and Socio – Political Intervention Karin Böllert	101

Part II

Models of Organization and Development Strategies for Social Services

Sectoral Approaches to Prevention in Social Work: Private, Professional and Ethno – Centered Practice in Canada Ralph Garber	113
--	-----

Prevention: Perspectives for its Organization in a Differentiated Society Hans – Joachim Schulze/Jaap de Visser	131
Organizing Good Intentions Sune Sunesson	147
Organizing and Financing Prevention: Community – Based Programs for Children and Families Jeanne C. Marsh/Lina Cramer	159
Community – Based Child and Family Services in an Urban Setting: An Examination of Service Delivery and the Potential for Prevention Brad McKenzie	173
Child Welfare in Japan Shinya Hoshino	189

Part III

Professional Competence and Preventive Action

The Discourse of Social Work: Normalization Versus the Autonomy of Life Praxis Heinz Sünker	201
The Gender Bias in Welfare Politics: Some Remarks on New Starting Points for the Discussion of Prevention Helga Krüger	219
Prevention: Some Current Issues in the UK Ruth Gardner	231
The Service Delivery System: A Key Element in Prevention Planning Marianne Meinhold	241
The Future in the Past: Deriving Social Work Competence from Past Success Jona M. Rosenfeld	249

An Eco – Social Action Concept of Prevention: Life Text and Context Interpretations in their Preventive Function Wolf Rainer Wendt	257
Discussion Statement: Professional Action And Concepts of Prevention Joachim Wieler	261

Part IV

Preventive Strategies in Social Work Practice

Youth Participation and Integrated Youth Policy on Local Level Jan Laurens Hazekamp	267
Social Constraints on Primary Prevention: The Case of Child Sexual Abuse Policy Neil Gilbert	279
Deprivation and Poor Health in Childhood: Prospects for Prevention Michaela Benzeval/Ken Judge	291
Experiences from German Youth Programs for the Primary Prevention of Aids: A Work in Progress Report Peter Franzkowiak	325
Notes on Child Abuse and Incest: How Incest Became a Question of Social Injustice towards Women and was Separated from the Issue of Child Abuse Rineke van Daalen	337
Prevention and the Utilization of Evaluation Research Maja Heiner	349

Part V

Preventive Strategies in the Criminal Justice System

Careers and Process in Preventative Services for Young People in England Spencer Millham/Michael Little	367
Delinquency Prevention and Control Policies in the United States: Issues and Prospects for the Future Ira M. Schwartz/Martha Wade Steketee	375
Individual Prevention: Comments on an Obsolete Conception Franz Bettmer	391
Techno—Prevention and Conflict Management versus Moral—Authoritarian Control in Criminal Policy Heinz Steinert	401
Dutch Policies for Prevention of Vandalism and Petty Crime Erhard Blankenburg	407
Discussion Statement: Prevention Strategies in the Criminal Justice System Helge Peters	413
Subject Index	419