

CONTENTS

List of figures and tables	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
1 An ageing world	1
2 Ageing across cultures	17
3 Rising tides: demography and old age	29
4 Older people as political actors	45
5 Globalization, structural adjustment and ageing	59
6 Globalization, migration and ageing	71
7 Material resources in later life	86
8 Health and illness in later life	101
9 Family and community in later life	115
10 Services for elders	131
11 Institutional living in later life	145
12 Ageing in context	160
References	171
Index	187

LIST OF FIGURES AND TABLES

Figure 1.1	Projections for population over 65 (Greater Ageing Scenario) and per cent GDP spent on pensions: selected countries	10
Figure 3.1	Age pyramids for Bangladesh in 1974: actual and adjusted data	30
Figure 3.2a	Population pyramid for Germany 1910	33
Figure 3.2b	Population pyramid for Germany 1993	34
Figure 3.3	Age and marital status: Germany 1993	35
Figure 3.4	Total numbers of people over 60 in more developed and less developed countries of the world 2000–2035 (projections)	36
Figure 4.1	Countries in which more than half the potential voters will be over 50 by 2020 (projections)	48
Figure 4.2	Women over the age of 50 as a percentage of total voting-age population: selected countries	50
Table 7.1	Economically active population aged 55+ in 1990 (per cent)	88
Table 11.1	Estimated proportions of older people in some form of institutional care in different countries (c. 1990)	147