

Contents

Preface		V
	I. Prologue
William H. Chafe	The 1960s: The Critical Decade for Postwar America	3
	II. Arts and Media
Marjorie Perloff	Watchman, Spy, and Dead Man: Johns, O'Hara, Cage, and the "Aesthetic of Indifference"	25
Bettina Friedl	Wearable Art: The Complication of Art through Fashion in the Sixties	61
Paul Neubauer	Marshall McLuhan and the 60s New Media Debate: A Summary of Effects	99
Michael Barchet	Before Irony: Seeing the Films of Robert Kramer	117
Kai Weber	"Could be an Illusion, but I might as well try": Ideals and Practices of the Grateful Dead and the Woodstock Nation	139
Elisabeth Schäfer-Wünsche	Suppose James Brown Read Fanon: Contrastive Sounds from the 'Godfather of Soul'	149
Wilfried Raussert	John Cage: Limits and Possibilities of Crossing Cultural Boundaries	169

III. Literature and Society

Gerhard Hoffmann	The Sixties and the Advent of Postmodernism	191
Christian S. Berkemeier	Short Fiction in the 1960s: Donald Barthelme and Postmodern Parody	237
Dirk Padeken	The Content of the Form: Truman Capote's In Cold Blood and its Discourse on Crime and Punishment	247
Hans-Ulrich Mohr	The 'Reality' of War: Rabe's and Shepard's Vietnam Dramas	263
Heike Raphael-Hernandez	The 'Non-Existent' Vietnam War in African American Novels: A Question of Shared Guilt?	287
Jutta Ernst	Slouching towards Bethlehem : Joan Didion's Cultural Narratives	303
Antje Kley	A post- Stonewall Account of pre- Stonewall Life: Samuel Delany's A Motion of Light in Water	317
Georg Schiller	Writing about Transcendence and Writing as Transcendence: Native American Literature from the 1960s to the 1990s in Dialogue with Pragmatism	341
Carsten Albers	Confessional Poetry Revisited: Sexton, Plath, Lowell, and Snodgrass from a 90s Perspective	357
Nadja Gernalzick	Border Bending: Deconstruction and the Postmodern with Judith Butler and her Reception in Germany	381

IV. History and Politics

Sabine Bröck	The Urgency of the Petunias: Womanism as Cultural Intervention	399
Paul D. Morris	Representing the Experience of War: Michael Herr's Dispatches and Literary Journalism	413
Heike Schäfer	Wild Years: From the Environmental Literature of the Sixties to the Eco- logical Criticism of the Nineties	427
Lisa McGirr	Conservative Politics in a Liberal Age: A History of the Right in the 1960s	451
Gregory Field	Flushing Poisons from the Body Politic: The Fluoride Controversy and American Political Culture, 1955-1965	469
Jonathan Soffer	A Republican Dilemma: The Race Politics of Robert A. Taft, Barry M. Goldwater and the Quest for a Conservative Majority	487

V. Epilogue

Jürgen Donnerstag	When Your Parents Were Young: Teaching the American Sixties to German Students of the Nineties	505
List of Contributors		527