

Table of contents

Preface . . . . .	v
Contributors . . . . .	vii
Acknowledgements . . . . .	viii
Part I: Introduction . . . . .	1
① Labour standards: An institutional framework for restructuring and development. Werner Sengenberger . . . . .	3
Part II: Types of labour standards and their interaction . . . . .	43
② Protection — participation — promotion: The systemic nature and effects of labour standards. Werner Sengenberger . . . . .	45
3 Equality, efficiency and economic progress: The case for universally applied equitable standards for wages and conditions of work. Frank Wilkinson . . . . .	61
4 Employment protection and employment security. Werner Sengenberger . . . . .	87
5 The regional impact of unemployment insurance and active labour market policy: An international comparison. Bernd Reissert . . . . .	117
Part III: The impact of standards at various levels of organization . . .	137
6 The rationale for multi-level labour standards. Duncan Campbell . . . . .	139

7	Company-internal restructuring and retraining: Employment plans and employment companies in West and East Germany. Gerhard Bosch . . . . .	172
8	Restructuring at the industry level: Resolving the shipbuilding crisis in Germany and Sweden. Heiner Heseler and Bo Stråth . . . . .	206
9	Restructuring at the regional level. . . . . 229
	Case 1. South Bend, Indiana, United States: Regional industrial restructuring without labour union participation. Charles Craypo . . . . .	230
	Case 2. Province of Ontario, Canada: Removing the obstacles to negotiated adjustments. John O'Grady . . . . .	255
	Case 3. Lorraine, France: Labour standards and economic reconversion. Philippe Méhaut and Marie-Claire Villeval . . . . .	279
	Case 4. Emilia-Romagna, Italy: Labour standards and flexible industrialization. Vittorio Capecchi . . . . .	307
10	Restructuring at the national level: Labour-led restructuring and reform in Australia. Robert Kyloh . . . . .	344
11	Restructuring at the European Community level: European integration, market forces and social policy in creative tension. David Foden . . . . .	370
12	Restructuring at the global level: The role of international labour standards. Werner Sengenberger . . . . .	394
Part IV: Conclusion . . . . .		419
13	Labour standards, economic efficiency and development: Lessons from experience with industrial restructuring. Duncan Campbell and Werner Sengenberger . . . . .	421