

Contents

Figures and tables	vii
Acknowledgements	x
Preface	xi
Introduction	1
Part I The UK	3
1 UK taxation and capital investment John Pointon	5
2 UK taxation and finance leasing John Pointon and Emma Welsh	23
3 Taxation and capital investment appraisal: a mathematical programming approach Suzanne Farrar	43
Part II Europe	83
4 A review of business taxation in Europe Graham Clayton and Peter Harnett	85
5 Tax-induced investment incentives and leverage gains in the European Community Suzanne Farrar and John Pointon	117

6	Capital structure: an econometric perspective on Europe Jon Tucker	139
7	The harmonization of corporate taxation within the European Community Peter Pierpoint	181
	Part III Multi-national aspects	195
8	Controlled foreign companies: a general framework for small UK company groups operating in low tax areas Derek Spratley	197
9	Multi-national capital budgeting and finance decisions Vincent Hooper	211
	Conclusions	227

Figures and tables

Table 1.1	The present value of capital allowances, for every £1 of outlay, discounted to the first tax payment date	12
Table 1.2	Critical values of the capital allowance factor to determine borrowing or lending	16
Table 1.3	Capital allowance factors for different risk categories	17
Table 1.4	Alternative tax scenarios	19
Table 1.5	Tax incentives to capital investment	20
Table 2.1	Capital allowances for the lessor	27
Table 2.2	Net present values for the lessor	27
Table 2.3	The lessee's liability account	28
Table 2.4	Discounted cost of leasing	28
Table 2.5	Discounted cost of buying	29
Table 2.6	The importance of the lease disclosure requirement
	factor in the finance lease decision	33
Table 2.7	The gearing ratio of the company	33
Table 2.8	A significant relationship between gearing and whether a firm considers that finance lease contracts affect its borrowing capacity	35
Table 2.9	No significant relationship between gearing and whether a firm considers that finance lease contracts affected its borrowing capacity, before finance lease contracts were disclosed on the balance sheet	35
Table 2.10	The importance of taxation in finance leasing for quoted and unquoted companies	35
Table 2.11	The tax paying capacity of quoted and unquoted companies	37

Table 2.12	The choice of rate to discount the leasing rental payments	38
Table 3.1	Incremental project value after tax	47
Table 3.2	Effect of tax relief at marginal rate	48
Table 3.3	Surplus ACT arising from project acceptance	50
Table 3.4	Project value with no surplus ACT	51
Table 3.5	Effect of loss offset	53
Table 3.6	Effect of loss offset and lower dividend payment	54
Table 3.7	The lease/purchase decision	56
Table 3.8	The lease/purchase decision for a temporary non-tax payer	58
Table 4.1	Major elements of European tax regimes.	88
Table 4.2	The treatment of dividends	96
Table 4.3	Depreciation regimes operating within selected countries	101
Table 4.4	Capital gains and capital trading losses	106
Table 4.5	The allowability of interest expenses and thin capitalization restrictions	111
Table 4.6	Existing tax treaties	112
Table 4.7	The treatment of dividends receivable	113
Table 4.8	Indirect taxation	114
Table 5.1	Straight line and equivalent declining-balance rates	121
Table 5.2	Restrictions on the declining-balance rate	122
Table 5.3	Tax depreciation factors	124
Table 5.4	Tax rates across Europe	125
Table 5.5	Equilibrium pre-tax rates of return in a post-tax model	126
Table 5.6	Ranking countries by the tax incentives	127
Table 5.7	Rank correlation coefficients of investment and risk	127
Table 5.8	Leverage gains under a passive debt management policy	133
Table 5.9	Leverage gains under an active debt management policy	133
Table 5.10	Ranking leverage gains in the UK	134
Table 6.1	Summary statistics of the debt to debt plus equity ratios of European countries	159
Table 6.2	The ranking of European countries by the debt to debt plus equity ratios of their firms	160
Table 6.3	The ranking of European countries by their debt to debt plus equity ratios and taxation system types	161

Table 6.4	Summary of European firm debt to debt plus equity ratio distribution types	165
Table 6.5	Summary results of the univariate regression analyses	167
Table 7.1	Survey of business opinion on influence of corporate tax differentials	183
Table 9.1	The capital structure decision	215
Table 9.2	The allocation of currencies	216
Table 9.3	Political risk and financing	217
Table 9.4	Financing sources	218
Table 9.5	Country-specific functions	219
Table 9.6	Trend in finance functions	220
Table 9.7	The discount rate in overseas project evaluation	221
Table 9.8	Effect of debt and high tax rates upon value	221
Table 9.9	The significance of differences between UK and US	222
Figure 3.1	The corporate tax function	45
Figure 6.1	Belgium: the distribution of corporate capital structures	162
Figure 6.2	UK: the distribution of corporate capital structures	164
Figure 7.1	Relative taxation of domestic and foreign investment	182
Figure 8.1	Will a CFC direction be made by the Inland Revenue?	210