

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	viii
I SITUATING SURVEILLANCE	1
1 Introduction: Body, Soul and Credit Card	3
Surveillance in Everyday Life	3
Surveillance in Modern Society	6
The Social Impact of Technology	8
Technology and Totalitarianism	11
The Problem of Privacy	14
Personhood and Postmodernity	17
Understanding Surveillance Society	20
2 Surveillance in Modern Society	22
A Prehistory of Surveillance	22
Surveillance and Modernity	24
The Military, War and Modern Surveillance	27
The Nation-State and Modern Surveillance	29
Capitalism and Modern Surveillance	33
Surveillance, Modernity and Beyond	37
3 New Surveillance Technologies	40
From Papermongers to Databanks	40
The Difference Technology Makes	42
What Do Computers Do?	46
New Technology and Surveillance Capacity	51
New Technologies: New Surveillance?	53
New Surveillance: Evidence and Debate	55

4 From Big Brother to the Electronic Panopticon	57
The Police State and the Prison	57
Orwell's Dystopia	59
The Panopticon from Bentham to Foucault	62
Electronic Surveillance: Panoptic Power?	67
Evaluating Electronic Panopticism	71
Beyond Orwell, Bentham and Foucault	78
II SURVEILLANCE TRENDS	81
5 The Surveillance State: Keeping Tabs on You	83
You and Your Data-Image	83
The Surveillance State	85
A Political Economy of New Surveillance	88
New Technologies and Surveillance Capacity	91
From Crib to Coffin: Fine-grained Files	94
Managing Health Care Spending: The Ontario Health Card Administration, Computers and Beyond	96
	99
6 The Surveillance State: From Tabs to Tags	102
Spiderman's Solution	102
Electronic Identification	104
Computers that Converse: Record Linkage	107
Police Computers: Command and Control	110
Computerizing National Security	114
State Surveillance, Citizenship and Globalization	116
7 The Transparent Worker	119
Chaplin and Chips	119
The Watched Workplace	121
Taylorism and Technology	124
Towards Disorganized Surveillance?	126
The Transparent Worker	129
Computer-Intensified Surveillance	131
Post-Fordism, Disorganized Surveillance and Beyond	133
8 The Targeted Consumer	136
Junk Mail Marketing	136
Taylorism Transposed?	138
The Domestic Threshold	141

New Technologies for Surveillance?: Caller ID and Smart Cards	147
Data Entrepreneurs and Strategic Information	150
Commercial Surveillance Capacities	153
Consumerism and Surveillance Theory	155
III COUNTER-SURVEILLANCE	159
9 Challenging Surveillance	161
The Challenge of and the Challenge to	161
The Challenge of Surveillance	164
The Challenge to Surveillance: I Privacy Law	170
The Challenge to Surveillance: II Social Movements	174
Beyond the Watershed	177
10 Privacy, Power, Persons	179
Mirages of Modernity?	179
Privacy Invaded	180
The Public and the Private	182
Diminishing Private Space?	184
Privacy and Property	187
Privacy or Autonomy?	189
A Superpanopticon?	190
Surveillance and Personhood	192
Beyond Privacy	196
11 Against Dystopia, Distance, Division	199
Real-Time Dystopia	199
Dystopia in Surveillance Theory	201
Is Seeing Knowing?	205
Confessing, Controlling, Confidence	208
From LA to the Other City	211
Towards an Alternative	214
12 Beyond Postmodern Paranoia	218
Postmodern Paranoids	218
Surveillance Society Today	219
For the Future	223
Notes	226
Select Bibliography	258
Index	267