
Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction: Philip Walter Sawford Andrews, 1914–1971 Frederic S. Lee	1
1 Report from the ‘accountancy’ side of the pilot inquiry into the relative efficiency of small- and large-scale business	35
2 A reconsideration of the theory of the individual business Appendix: letters on ‘A reconsideration of the theory of the individual business’, and Manufacturing Business	73 112
3 Industrial analysis in economics — with especial reference to Marshallian doctrine	123
4 The legacy of the 1930s in economics	159
5 The Netherlands lectures Appendix: letters on the marginalist controversy	175 219
6 Some aspects of competition in retail trade	233
7 Competition in retail trade	273
8 Some aspects of capital development	309
9 Competition in the modern economy	323
10 Business profits and the quiet life	363
11 Industrial economics as a specialist subject	370
12 Industrial uses of economic theory	378

Contents

Epilogue: whatever happened to P.W.S. Andrews's industrial economics? Peter E. Earl	402
A bibliography of the writings of P.W.S. Andrews	428
Name index	431
Subject index	434