MAPS, TABLES, FIGURES AND GRAPHS   x

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS   xi

I. INTRODUCTION   1
   Problem Statement, Objectives and Scope   1
   Background   3
   Conceptual Perspective   8
   Case Study   12
   Sources, Materials and Work Techniques   13
   Explanation of Some Terms   18
   Caveat   21

II. PRELIMINARY WAYS OF ORGANISING THE ENTREPRISE
AND LABOUR AGENTS, 1882-1907   23
   Background   24
   Entrepreneurs and Commercial Agricultural Associations, 1890-
   1899   27
   Administrators, Peones, Arrendatarios   36
   The War of a Thousand Days, 1899-1902   41

III. TRANSFORMATIONS AND LABOUR SYSTEMS, 1907-1934
   45
   Carlos Estrada’s Administration, 1907-1934   46
   Labour by the Day, Destajista, and under Contract   53
   The Enganche System   55
   The Tablón System   63
IV. ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF AND THE EVICTION OF THE TABLONEROS, 1934-1944 71
   Administrative Agents 72
   Regulations for the Coffee Plantations 75
   Eviction of the Tablonero Workers, Administratives Changes, and the Law 200 of 1936 81

V. TENANT FARMER RELATIONS: STRENGTHENING,
PRACTICES AND REGULATIONS, 1944-1960 87
   Proprietors and Properties 88
   Administrative Transformation and Strengthening of the Tablonero
   System 91
   Official Inspections, Working Conditions and Modes of Labour
   Contracting 97
   Internal Labour Regulations 103
   Presumptive Tenancy Contracts 105

VI. DIRECT ADMINISTRATION AND OPERATIONAL CHANGES
DURING LA VIOLENCIA 111
   Labour Contracting 112
   Carlos Osorio’s Administration, 1960-1966 118
   Ways of Supervising Day Workers, Agregados and Partijeros
   120

VII. DESINTEGRATION OF THE TENANT FARMER SYSTEM AND
HIRING OF TEMPORARY WORKERS, 1966-1973 129
   Phases and Effects of the Agrarian Reform 129
   The Eviction of the Tenant Farmers 134
   Day Labour and the Breakdown of the Family Units 135
   Labour Conflicts and Administrative Decline 136

VIII. THE END OF THE COFFEE ENTERPRISE, 1974-1982 143
   Coffee Technification 144
   Jaime Contreras’ Administration, 1974-1982 149
Eradication of the Tenant Farmer Arrangements and Direct Administration 151
Labour Agents 152
Disputes Over Labour and the Value of the Lands Cultivated for Personal Use 155
Territorial Fractionation 160

IX. WORK, FAMILY AND GENDER 165
Traditional Family Nucleus 166
Labour Functions and Gender Roles 168
Individualisation of the Family Unit 175

X. CONCLUSIONS 181

XI. SUMMARY 189

APPENDIX 195

ABBREVIATIONS 201

BIBLIOGRAPHY 203
Maps, Tables, Figures and Graphs

Maps

2.1. Tolima – Colombia. Localisation Map  30
3.1. Libano – Tolima. Localisation Map  52
4.1. Santa Teresa – La Aurora. Localisation Map  93

Tables

2.1. Property Transactions and Business Associations, 1882-1899  35
3.2. Carlos Estrada’s purchases, 1907-1920  49
4.3. Lands, Crops and Prices, 1936  74
5.4. La Aurora Owners and Associations, 1944-1968  90
6.5. Main Libano Properties, 1960  119
8.6. Differences Between Traditional (Typica and Bourbon) and Modern (Caturra) Coffee-Growing  146-148
8.7. Lots acquired by the Contreras-Osorio Family, 1972-1974  150

Figures and Graphs

2.1. Labour Organisation, 1890-1899  40
3.2. Labour Organisation, 1922-1934  62
4.3. Labour Organisation, 1934-1944  78
5.4. Labour Organisation, 1955-1960  96
6.5. Labour Organisation, 1960-1966  126