

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Foreword by Professor Andrew Dobson	1
Introduction	5
Part I Green Ideology
1 Ian Coates : A cuckoo in the nest: the National Front and green ideology.	13
2 Wolfgang Rüdig, Lynn Bennie, Mark Franklin : The mixed fortunes of the British Green Party 1989-1992.	29
3 John Barry : Deep ecology and the undermining of green politics.	43
Part II Business, Finance and Environmental Regulation
4 John Alder : Environmental Assessment - the inadequacies of law.	61
5 Sussi Handberg, Per Christensen, Susse Georg : The Danish experience of clean technology: co-optimising environmental protection and working conditions.	83
6 Sally Eden : The environment and business: the incorporation of environmental responsibility into retail ethics.	95
7 Joseph Tanega : Towards an environmental credit-rating agency.	107

Part III European Environmental Policy: A Comparative Assessment

- 8 Matthew Gandy: Environmental policy in transition: a comparative overview of key developments in Britain and Germany. 119
- 9 Ute Collier: Global warming and energy policy - burden or opportunity? 129
- 10 Marc Hooghe: Success through lack of competition: the political opportunity structure for EC environmental policy in Belgium. 141

Part IV Urban Environmental Problems: East and West

- 11 Judith Chernajovsky: Urban environmental pollution and child health in Houston, USA: the links to economic growth. 151
- 12 Maria Shahgedanova & Timothy Burt: Air pollution management in the former USSR. 167