

CONTENTS

Foreword	v
Spencer Millham
1. Introduction	1
Roger Bullock
Section 1: Offending
2. Juvenile justice in the United States: Recent trends and current issues	11
Ira Schwartz
3. Strategies for dealing with delinquents: A European perspective	20
Josine Junger-Tas
4. Changing the sentencing culture	32
John Harding
Section 2: Difficult Behaviour
5. Aspects of psychiatric intervention	36
Lumsden Walker
6. Individual and group treatment of problem adolescents: A selective review	47
Inger Davis
Section 3: Education
7. The education of problem adolescents in Israel	55
Yitzak Kashti
Section 4: Family work
8. Welfare in Sweden: The family and problematic adolescents	65
Sven Hesse
Section 5: Abuse
9. Adolescent issues of abuse	73
John Y. Powell

Section 6: Planning
10. Continuum of care: Advantages and disadvantages Bill Brittain	77
11. 'If we all hold our breath....' Changed local authorities and the opportunities for large British voluntary organisations in 1990s Elwyn Owens and Keith MacKenzie	82
12. Task oriented services: Framework for programme design and family planning J. Parker McLendon	88
Section 7: Advocacy/Consumer Views
13) The experience of being in care Sylvia Miller	93
14) Advocacy for adolescents John Niblock	96
Section 8: Solutions
15) Group child care without apology Alan Keith-Lucas	100
16) Treatment in security: Current issues and further challenges Tony Mackin	107
17) Active collaboration: Barnardos' MARS project in Dundee Bill Black	112
18) Pets and the socialisation of children Michael Robin	117
19) Specialised residential services for difficult adolescents: Recent research findings Michael Little	122
List of contributors	134