

Contents

Maps and Tables xii

Acknowledgments xiii

- 1. Introduction: World-System Demography and the Yoruba 1
  - Bureaucratic Surveillance 2
  - The CAFN Projects 4
  - From World-System Theory to World-System Demography 8
  - Nigerian Demographic Data 11
  - The Yoruba 13
  - What Follows 17

- 2. Historical Prelude: Bringing Yorubaland into the World System 19
  - Eurocentric Devaluation of the Yoruba 20
  - Deconstruction of the Indigenous Economy 21
  - Advancing Bureaucratic Surveillance 23
  - Resistance and Political Liberation 28
  - Nigeria Today 29
  - Demographic Parallels with the Historical Themes 30
  - Conclusion 32

- 3. The Yoruba Fieldworkers: Emissaries of Bureaucratic Surveillance 33
  - The Subordinates as Yorubas 34
  - The Bureaucratic Supervision Network 39
  - Ongoing Training 43
  - Conclusion 46

Contents

4. Gaining Entrance 47

- "Block 40" and Surveillance 48
- Utilizing Cultural Capital from Two Worlds 49
- Sources of Difficulty 55
- Invading Subjects' Territorial Selves 61
- Conclusion 64

5. The Lessons Inherent in the CAFN Projects 66

- Disciplining Power and Docile Bodies 66
- Lesson 1: The "Real" Family Is the Nuclear Family 68
- Lesson 2: Children Should Be Evaluated According to a Cost
Calculus 70
- Lesson 3: Western Contraceptive Methods Are as Morally
Acceptable as Traditional Measures 72
- Lesson 4: Personal Efficacy Is Normal and Natural 73
- Lesson 5: Placing Oneself under Bureaucratic Surveillance Is Normal and Natural 76
- Conclusion 77

6. Resisting the Lessons 79

- "I strongly suspect that she lied" 80
- "This attitude is foreign to African society" 82
- "The poor man must not lack both wealth and children" 83
- "She is not interested in such topics" 88
- "Things should be allowed to happen as it pleases God" 89
- Restating the Yoruba Case 92
- The Effect of Western Schooling on Compliance 92
- Conclusion 94

7. The CAFN Projects as Exercises in World-System Demography:

Policy Considerations 96

Exploitation and Reactivity 98

World-System Demography and Funding Agencies 102

Opening Doors 106

Conclusion 109

Appendix A. The Study Design 113*Appendix B. Description of Background Documents, with Samples 123

Notes 143

Bibliography 153

Index 171

Maps and Tables

- Map 1. Regions of Nigeria 5
- Map 2. CAFN Survey Locations Stratified by Size 6
- Map 3. CAFN2 Fieldworker's Hand-drawn Map of Town Segment 49
- Table 1.1. Demographic Data for Nigeria, the United States, and the World, 1976 and 1991 12
- Table 5.1. CAFN1 Respondents Who "Never Heard of" Various Contraceptive Methods 74
- Table 6.1. CAFN2 Respondents Refusing to Answer Selected Questions 84
- Table 6.2. Inconvenience of Another Baby This Year 85
- Table 6.3. Noncompliance of CAFN2 Respondents in Number-Eliciting Questions 90
- Table 6.4. Relation of Western Education Level to CAFN2 Respondents' Noncompliance in a Number-Eliciting Question 93