

Contents

Preface	xi
Foreword Bernice Neugarten	xvii
PART I
Conceptual and Contextual Issues in the Current "Generational" Debate	1
1 Is the "Contract Across Generations" Changing? Effects of Population Aging on Obligations and Expectations Across Age Groups Vern L. Bengtson	3
2 Generational Relations in Historical Context W. Andrew Achenbaum	25
PART II
Social Contexts of the Generational Contract	43
3 An Historical Perspective on Support for Schooling by Different Age Cohorts Maris A. Vinovskis	45
4 Economic Status of the Young and Old in the Working-Age Population, 1964 and 1987 Richard A. Easterlin, Diane J. Macunovich, and Eileen M. Crimmins	67
5 Of Deeds and Contracts: Filial Piety Perceived in Contemporary Shanghai Judith Treas and Wei Wang	87

PART IIIAge Cohorts in Conflict?* 99

- 6 When the Contract Fails: Care for the Elderly in Nonindustrial Cultures
Nancy Foner 101

- 7 Conflict over Intergenerational Equity: Rhetoric and Reality in a Comparative Context
Victor W. Marshall, Fay Lomax Cook, and Joanne Gard Marshall 119

- 8 Intergenerational Relations and Welfare Restructuring: The Social Construction of an Intergenerational Problem
Alan Walker 141

PART IVFamily Issues Across Generations* 167

- 9 Connections: Kin and Cohort
Matilda White Riley and John W. Riley, Jr. 169

- 10 Intergenerational Relations: Gender, Norms, and Behavior
Alice S. Rossi 191

PART VThe Politics and Polity of Age Groups and Generations* 213

- 11 A Lifetime of Privilege? Aging and Generations at Century's End
David W. Thomson 215

- 12 Interest Group Politics: Generational Changes in the Politics of Aging
Fernando M. Torres-Gil 239

13	Setting the Agenda for Research on Cohorts and Generations: Theoretical, Political, and Policy Implications Jill Quadagno, W. Andrew Achenbaum, and Vern L. Bengtson	259
	References	273
	Biographical Sketches of the Contributors	299
	Index	303