

Contents

Series preface	page vii
List of contributors	ix
Editor's preface	xi
Part I: Introduction
1 Introduction and overview Zur Shapira	3
2 Understanding how decisions happen in organizations James G. March	9
Part II: Information processing and attention allocation
3 Trying to help S&Ls: How organizations with good intentions jointly enacted disaster William H. Starbuck and P. Narayan Pant	35
4 Organizational choice under ambiguity: Decision making in the chemical industry following Bhopal Howard Kunreuther and Jacqueline Meszaros	61
5 Strategic agenda building in organizations Jane E. Dutton	81
Part III: Preference processing
6 The social ideologies of power in organizational decisions Gerald Robert Salancik and Margaret Cooper Brindle	111
7 Managerial incentives in organizations: Economic, political, and symbolic perspectives Edward J. Zajac and James D. Westphal	133
8 Coordination in organizations: A game-theoretic perspective Colin Camerer and Marc Knez	158

Part IV: Decision processes

9	The escalation of commitment: An update and appraisal Barry M. Staw	191
10	The possibility of distributed decision making Baruch Fischhoff and Stephen Johnson	216
11	Aligning the residuals: Risk, return, responsibility, and authority Raghu Garud and Zur Shapira	238
12	Organizational decision making as rule following Xueguang Zhou	257

Part V: Alternative approaches

13	Naturalistic decision making and the new organizational context Ter:y Connolly and Ken Koput	285
14	Telling decisions: The role of narrative in organizational decision making Ellen S. O'Connor	304
15	Bounded rationality, indeterminacy, and the managerial theory of the firm Roy Radner	324
16	The scarecrow's search: A cognitive psychologist's perspective on organizational decision making John W. Payne	353

	Name index	375
	Subject index	385