

Contents

	Notes on the Contributors	vii
1	Introduction Anthony Carty and H. W. Singer	1
2	Development in the 1990s: A Challenge to Researchers Willing to be Activists Richard Jolly	10
3	Adam Smith: Forebear of Development Studies H. W. Singer	26
4	Equity, Equality and Appropriate Distribution: Multiple Interpretations and Zimbabwean Usages Des Gasper	35
5	Are Government Aid and Private Charity Morally on a Par? Nigel Dower	63
6	Some Aspects of the Present Discussion of Lawyers on the Place of Law in Development Anthony Carty	80
7	The Aid and Trade Provision as Strategic Trade Policy Oliver Morrissey	98
8	Multilateral Development Banks and Canadian Foreign Aid Jean-Philippe Thérien and Maryse Robert	114
9	Economic Nationalism and the Regulation of Multinational Enterprises P. T. Muchlinski	138
10	Perestroika and the Strategies for Third World Development Vaman Rao	157

11	The Role of the South in a Chaotic World Frances Stewart	175
12	Liberalisation of Agricultural Markets: An Institutional Approach Anne M. Thomson and Lawrence D. Smith	193
13	North–South Co-operation in Tackling Threats to the Global Environment: A Legal Perspective on Current Trends and Prospects John Woodliffe	219
14	Transfers vs. Licences as Incentives to Governments for Environmental Correctives Anthony Clunies Ross	236
	Index	259