

Contents

| | |
|---|-----|
| Prologue | ix |
| Acknowledgements | xvi |
| Part I Principles of modernity | |
| 1 Modes of narrating modernity | 3 |
| 2 Enablement and constraint: Understanding modern institutions | 19 |
| Part II The first crisis of modernity | |
| 3 Restricted liberal modernity: The incomplete elaboration of the modern project | 37 |
| 4 Crisis and transformation of modernity: The end of the liberal utopia | 55 |
| Part III The closure of modernity | |
| 5 Networks of power and barriers to entry: The organization of allocative practices | 73 |
| 6 Building iron cages: The organization of authoritative practices | 89 |
| 7 Discourses on society: Reorganizing the mode of cognitive representation | 104 |
| Part IV The second crisis of modernity | |
| 8 Pluralization of practices: The crisis of organized modernity | 123 |
| 9 Sociology and contingency: The crisis of the organized mode of representation | 141 |
| 10 Modernity and self-identity: Liberation and disembedding | 154 |

Part V Towards extended liberal modernity?

| | |
|---|-----|
| 11 Incoherent practices and postmodern selves: The current condition of modernity | 175 |
| Notes | 194 |
| Bibliography | 240 |
| Index | 261 |