Contents

Preface xi

The Authors xvii

1. Choosing the Fundamental Change Strategy 1
   Forces Requiring Fundamental Change • Choosing a Fundamental Change Strategy

2. Creating a Learning Organization: Balanced Rewards for Results and Improvement 9
   Making a Conscious Effort to Move to a Learning Mode • Learning and Change • Behavior and Commitment in Top Management • Implications for Related Changes • Profile of a Learning Organization

3. Leading a Vision-Driven Change Effort: A Commitment to the Future 25
   Key Factors in Vision-Driven Change • System Orientation in Vision-Driven Change

4. Focusing the Effort: Crucial Themes That Drive Change 37
   Change in the Mission or "Reason to Be" • Change in Identity • Change in Relationships to Key Stakeholders • Change in the Way of Work • Change in the Culture
5. Resolving the Leader's Personal Dilemmas: Style and Behavior
Balancing the Demands of Work and Personal Life
- Choosing How to Behave and Be Seen as a Leader of Change

6. Aligning the Organization: Integration of Roles, Systems, and Rewards
Roles and Relationships • Human Resource Policies and Practices • Information Management • Financial Management • Other Functional Staffs • Organizational Structure and Design • Rewards

7. Leading the Transition: Strategies for Process, Commitment, and Communication
The Transitional State • Choices for Top Management Behavior • Managing the Work: Tasks and Activities • Developing Commitment Strategies • Designing Communication Strategies and Mechanisms • Recruiting and Using Dedicated Expertise • Summary

8. Epilogue: Visionary Leaders and Transformed Organizations
Conditions in the Next Decade • The Thriving Organization • The Winning Leadership • Changing the Essence

References

Suggestions for Further Reading

Index