

Contents

---

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	ix
1 Constructing Career Through Narrative and Context: An Interpretive Perspective Audrey Collin and Richard A. Young	1
Part I: Hermeneutical Studies of the Experience of Career
2 Great Expectations? Toward an Understanding of the Life Plan Heather J. Hopfl	15
3 The Construction of a Moral Career in Medicine Kevin D. Murray	31
4 Developmental Processes of Young Women in a Caring Profession: A Qualitative Life-Event Study Toni Faltermaier	48

5	The Notion of Managerial and Clerical Careers as They Emerge from Descriptions of Self and Coworkers Anne Statham	63
6	Advancing an Ecological Perspective of Vocational Development: The Construction of Personal Work Integration Jane A. Grimstad	79
7	Patterns of Unhappiness in Men's Careers Richard L. Ochberg	98
8	Entrepreneurial Women and the Relational Component of Identity: A Hermeneutical Study of Career Richard A. Young and Ronni Richards	117
9	Interpreting the End of a Career Bill Bytheway	134
 Part II: Hermeneutical Studies of Career Theory, Research, and Practice
10	Autonomy and Learning about Work Bill Law	151
11	Career Decisions: A Critical Psychology Tod Sloan	168
12	Time to Reflect: Biographical Study, Personal Insight, and Professional Development Pat Sikes and Kath Aspinwall	177
13	The Experience of Carrying Out a Hermeneutical Study Audrey Collin	189
	Bibliography	209
	Name Index	223
	Subject Index	229
	About the Contributors	239