
Contents

Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Connections/Intersections Cathy Schwichtenberg	i

One Out of Bounds: Reading Race and Madonna's Audiences

1 "A Sacred Monster in Her Prime": Audience Construction of Madonna as Low-Other Laurie Schulze, Anne Barton White, and Jane D. Brown	15
2 Madonna T/Races: Music Videos Through the Prism of Color Thomas K. Nakayama and Lisa N. Peñaloza	39
3 Images of Race and Religion in Madonna's Video Like a Prayer : Prayer and Praise Ronald B. Scott	57

Two The Sapphic Insurgent: Madonna and Gay Culture

4 Embodying Subaltern Memory: Kinesthesia and the Problematics of Gender and Race Cindy Patton	81
5 Justify Our Love: Madonna and the Politics of Queer Sex Lisa Henderson	107
6 Madonna's Postmodern Feminism: Bringing the Margins to the Center Cathy Schwichtenberg	129

Three

Gender Trouble: Madonna Poses the Feminist Question

- 7 Madonna Politics: Perversion, Repression, or Subversion?
Or Masks and/as Master-y
E. Ann Kaplan 149
- 8 Feminist Politics and Postmodern Seductions: Madonna and the Struggle for Political Articulation
Roseann M. Mandziuk 167
- 9 Seduction, Control, and the Search for Authenticity: Madonna's Truth or Dare
E. Deidre Pribram 189
- 10 Don't Go for Second Sex, Baby!
Melanie Morton 213

Four

The Political Economy of Postmodernism: Madonna as Star-Commodity

- 11 Metatextual Girl: —> patriarchy —> postmodernism —> power —> money —> Madonna
David Tetzlaff 239
- 12 "Material Girl": The Effacements of Postmodern Culture
Susan Bordo 265
- 13 The Distance Between Me and You: Madonna and Celestial Navigation (or You Can Be My Lucky Star)
Greg Seigworth 291
- About the Book and Editor* 319
- About the Contributors* 321
- Index* 323