

Contents

Introduction	XI
I. Motivation as a Surrogate for Meaning	1
Motivation as Invention	3
Beyond Motivation	8
Fragmentation and Splitting	12
The Fragmentation of the Organization of Work	13
The Fragmentation of Work	16
The Fragmentation of Life	21
Work and the Loss of Meaning	26
The Meaning of Meaning	29
Work and its Reference to Meaning	33
Meaning beyond Surrogates	39
II. Participation as a Collusive Quarrel about Immortality	47
Participation as a Quarrel	49
Participation as a Process of Mutual Collusion	59
The Infantilization of the Worker	64
The Discrimination of Responsibility	68
Contempt and Mistrust	74
Management as a Myth	82
Participation as a Collusive Quarrel	91
Participation as a Quarrel about Immortality	99
The Immortality of the Soul	100
The Immortality of the Firm	116
Immortality Limited: Greek Mythology as a Metaphor for Participation	126
The Iconography of Immortality in Work Enterprises	132
The Works Council: Tantalus or Sisyphus?	136
Beyond Collusion: Participation among Mortals	144
Equality through Death	146

Liberty towards Death	149
Fraternity among Mortals	151
 III. Leadership as a Perpetuation of Immaturity	 157
Introduction: Discontent with Contemporary Leadership Research	159
Leadership Between Reification and Deification	166
Towards a De-reification and De-deification of Leadership	173
Towards a Homification of Leadership	176
The Homification of Man (and Woman)	179
Leadership as a Myth	181
The Mythology of Leadership	185
The Divine King	186
The Hero	190
Career as a Myth	194
Leadership as a Perpetuation of Immaturity	198
Maturity and Immaturity	201
De-objectification and the Integration of the External and the Internal World	202
The Theory of Object-Relations	204
The Theory of Object-Relations and the Social Construction of Reality	209
Maturity and our Adult Roots in Immaturity	213
Maturity, Meaning, and Mortality	218
Mortality as a Missing Quality of Working Life	224
Management and Mortality	225
Towards a New Myth of Management	228
Leadership as the Management of Meaning	246
The Democratization of Work and Life	252
 IV. The Management of Wisdom	 257
Excursus on the Category of Wisdom	260
Wisdom as a Modality of Experience	279
The Dialectical Function of Wisdom	282
The Experience of Nothingness	286
From Leadership Style to a Culture of Wisdom	292
The Range of Wisdom and its Impact on Management Development	303
 References	 313
 Author Index	 341