

Contents

Contributors	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Preface	xi

Part One

EUROPEAN UNION: INSTITUTIONAL STRUCTURES AND THEIR ROLE IN RESHAPING EUROPEAN ECONOMY

1	EC Integration Deepening and Widening: The External Dimension of the EC 92 Programme and of the German Monetary Union	3
	Rolf J. Langhammer
2	Neo-Functionalist Theory of Regional Integration and "European Union": Haas Re-read with Nye and Lindberg	24
	Arun Kumar Banerji
3	Completion of the Internal Market of the EC: The External Consequences	36
	G. Faber
4	EMU and GMU: Implication for EC	57
	V.K. Bhalla
5	Financial and Banking Aspects of EC 1992	77
	V.L. Rao
6	EC Single Market and the Social Dimension	87
	B. Vivekanandan
7	Regional Integration in Western Europe: Shift from Functionalism to Neo-Functionalism	103
	Geetali Tare
8	EUREKA: A Grand Design for European Technological Cooperation	123
	Avila Pigeon

Part Two
EC AND EASTERN EUROPE

- 9 Economic Transformation in Eastern Europe: Its Genesis,
Adjustment Process and Impact on Developing Countries 135
Hans Linnemann and Atul Sarma
- 10 European Union and the COMECON: Relations between EC and
Eastern Europe 159
Werner Gumpel
- 11 CMEA's Economic Relations with the East and West 169
Arvind Vyas

Part Three
THE EC, GATT AND THE THIRD WORLD

- 12 Uruguay Round of Trade Negotiations and Unified Europe:
Implications for India 183
Sada Shankar Saxena
- 13 Uruguay Round and United Europe: Developing Countries
Viewpoint 199
R.K. Pandey
- 14 Perception of EEC on Trade in Services 206
Taranath P. Bhat
- 15 West Germany and Japan: The Debate on Industrial Competitiveness 220
Biju Paul Abraham
- Index 243