

Contents

| | |
|-----------------|-----|
| Acknowledgments | vi |
| Foreword | ix |
| Abbreviations | xii |

Part One

Understanding of the Aging Process and Attitudes to the Aged

| | | |
|---|---|-----|
| 1 | The Care and Extension of Old Age in Medieval Medicine Luke Demaitre | 3 |
| 2 | Study of Aging in the Arts Faculty of the Universities of Paris and Oxford P. Osmund Lewry, OP | 23 |
| 3 | Honour the Hoary Head: The Aged in the Medieval European Jewish Community Michael A. Signer | 39 |
| 4 | So Teach Us to Number Our Days: A Theology of Longevity in Jewish Exegetical Literature Frank Talmage | 49 |
| 5 | Aging and the Desert Fathers: The Process Reversed John T. Wortley | 63 |
| 6 | Beyond the Topos of Senescence: The Political Problems of Aged Carolingian Rulers Paul Edward Dutton | 75 |
| 7 | Old English Words for Old Ashley Crandell Amos | 95 |
| 8 | Figures of Old Age in Fourteenth-Century English Literature Alicia K. Nitecki | 107 |

Part Two

The Elderly: Numbers, Activity, Support

| | | | |
|----|--|-----------------------|-----|
| 9 | How Many of the Population were Aged? | Josiah C. Russell | 119 |
| 10 | Age-Related Data from the Templar Trials | Anne Gilmour-Bryson | 129 |
| 11 | Age, Property, and Career in Medieval Society | David Herlihy | 143 |
| 12 | Three Medieval Widows and a Second Career | Margaret Wade Labarge | 159 |
| 13 | Retirement and the Life Cycle in Fifteenth-Century England | Joel T. Rosenthal | 173 |
| 14 | The Quest for Security in Medieval England | Elaine Clark | 189 |
| | Afterword | | 201 |
| | Bibliography | | 209 |
| | Index | | 215 |