

Contents

---

Abstract .....	1
Acknowledgements .....	2
A Management summary
A1 Introduction .....	5
A2 Successful HR projects .....	6
A3 The HR systems market .....	7
A4 HR systems and payroll .....	8
A5 Product evaluation .....	9
B The challenge of change
B1 The role of HR .....	13
B2 The corporate model .....	14
B3 The professional model .....	15
B4 The business model .....	16
B5 The strategic model .....	17
B6 The way ahead .....	18
B7 How to re-engineer the HR function .....	19
B7.1 Process design and auditing .....	20
C HR and the line manager
C1 The line manager .....	23
C2 Business managers need HR planning (management) skills .....	24
C3 Teaching line managers HR planning .....	25
C3.1 The difference between data and information .....	25
C4 Line managers must analyse HR implications of business plans .....	29
D Organising for success
D1 Implementing a new HR system .....	33
D2 Project people and teams .....	34
D3 Project sponsor and steering group .....	35
D4 The project manager .....	36
D5 The HR system administrator .....	37
D6 The working party .....	39

D7 User specifications .....	40
D8 Choosing your supplier .....	41
D8.1 The shortlist .....	41
D8.2 The final choice .....	42

E Guide to the evaluations

E1 Evaluation methodology .....	47
E2 Format of the evaluations .....	48
E3 The evaluation criteria .....	51
E4 Product evaluation .....	53

F Summary of the evaluations

F1 Value for money .....	63
F2 Product evaluation criteria .....	65

G Evaluations

G1 Centre-file – Paradigm .....	71
G2 Compel – Compel for Windows .....	93
G3 Cyborg Systems – Solution Series/ST HRMS .....	115
G4 IBM – HR Access .....	133
G5 Oracle – Human Resource Management System .....	153
G6 PeopleSoft – HRMS .....	175
G7 Peterborough – PS Enterprise .....	197
G8 PWA – Empower .....	217
G9 SAP – R/3 HR System .....	237
Notes for readers .....	265