Part I The Systemic Approach to Families
1. The Foundations of Family Process Theory	3
Introduction	3
Family Process Theory and the Social Sciences	6
Earliest Uses of the Systems Approach:	7
The Structural Functionalists
Empirical Systems of Variables:	15
Partitioning Variance in Linear Models of Social Reality
The Emergence of General Systems Theory	21
Transactions With the Other Family Discipline	26
Development of the Family Therapy Movement and Emergence of Family Process Theory	31
The End of the Beginning	35
2. The Family as a System: An Overview	36
Characteristics of Open, Ongoing Systems	37
Characteristics of Goal-Seeking, Self-Regulating Systems	40
The Family as a Goal-Seeking System	41
The Family as a Self-Regulating System	43
The Principle of Requisite Variety and the Default Response	45
Characteristics of a Social System	46
Communication	46

Psychopolitical Negotiation	48
Attribution at the Social Systems Level	48
Social Distance Regulation	49
Characteristics of Family Systems	51
Variations and Constraints in Family Systems	54
Variations in the Attributes of Members	55
Variations in Family Size and Structural Composition	56
Variations in Families' Social Placement	57
3. From Cybernetic to Transcybernetic	59
Fitting the Family to the Cybernetic Model	59
Explaining Patterned Behavior in Family Systems	62
The Normative Model	62
The Developmental Task Model	65
The Psychopolitical Model	69
Reflexive Spirals: The Rapoport Model	71
The Opportunity Matrix Model	76
Toward a Unified Transcybernetic Model of Patterned Family Action	83

Part II Exploring Relational Space

4. Distance Regulation Within the Family System	89
The Nature of Relational Space	89
Distance Regulation in the Coresidential Marital Dyad	92
Fluctuations in Real Time	92
and Trends in Developmental Time
Marital Distance Regulation in Real Time	93
Marital Distance Regulation in Developmental Time	93
Bridging Between the Time Frames	95
Bonding and Buffering in Various Sectors of the Marital Domain	97
The Triangular Context of the Marital Bond	104
Distance Regulation in the Coresidential Parent-Child Dyad	105
Natural Parents With Dependent Children	106
The Coresidential Step Relationship	113
Crossgenerational Space Regulation in the Family With an Adult Child in Residence	116
Crossgenerational Space Regulation in the Family With an Aging Parent in Residence	117
Bonding and Buffering in the Coresidential Sibling Relationship	117

The Quality of Interaction in the Sibling Dyad	118
The Frequency-Intensity Dimension of Sibling Interaction	120
Sexual Interaction Among Siblings	120
Future Directions for Process-Oriented Research on Sibling Dyads and Constellations	121
Relationships Among Coresidential Secondary Kin and Nonkin	121
Summary of Distance Regulation Within the Family System	122
5. The Regulation of Transactions	123
Across Family Boundaries
Boundary Maintenance: Clarifying a Murky Concept	123
Defending the Family Domain: Protective Territoriality	124
Maintaining Family Loyalties and Assets: Possessive Restrictiveness	132
Typologies and Styles of Boundary Maintenance	137
Bridging Across Family Boundaries	140
Informal Networks of Transaction	140
Transactions With Formal Systems	152
Summary of the Bounding-Bridging Dynamic	160
6. The Regulation of Vertical Space	162
and Vertical Placement
The Vertical Dimension in Social Space	162
The Internal Stratification of the Family	163
Power in the Governance of Families	164
The Family Paradigm: Defining the Family's Overall Style of Interaction	166
Midrange Policies	169
Metarules	169
The Distribution of Family Resources	171
The Allocation of Prestige	172
Coalitions and Alliances	173
Family Positioning in a Stratified Society	177
Summary: The Vertical Dimension	180
Part III Socializing Children and Each Other
7. Family Meanings and Shared Realities	185
The Semantic Component of Family Process	186

The Construction and Maintenance of Shared Realities	187
The Construction and Maintenance of Separate Realities	190
Connection With and Protection From Outsider Realities	193
Family Folklore: Stories, Myths, and Memorabilia	194
Family Stories	195
Family Themes and Family Myths	197
Family Photos and Memorabilia	198
Using Stories, Photos, and Memorabilia in Family Therapy	200
Family Rituals	201
Family Celebrations	202
Family Traditions	207
Patterned Family Interactions	208
A Typology of Families as Observers of Ritual	209
Using Family Ritual in Family Therapy	210
Summary of Family Meanings and Shared Realities	211
8. The Socialization Process	212
Thorny Issues	212
The Legacy of Linear Models	214
A Model Based on the Quality of Family Interaction	215
The Interdependent Variables: Styles of Parenting	215
The Dependent Variable:	217
The Child's Socioemotional Competence
The Expanded (Transactional/Interactional) Model	226
The Unique Contributions of the Systemic Approach	234
The Principles of the Transcybernetic Process	236
The Principle of Reciprocal Effects	236
The Principle of Multiple Significant Others	238
The Principle of Indirect Effects (via External Systems)	239
The Principles of Multifinality and Equifinality	240
Summary: The Socialization Process	243
Afterword: A Few Concluding Observations	244
