

Contents

---

List of Tables	vi
List of Figures	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Introduction	1
1 Bank Failures and the Official Safety Net	5
2 Lessons of the Great Crash	21
3 Banking and Securities Business: the Separation Issue	38
4 The US Glass–Steagall Act	59
5 Reforming Japan’s Financial System	86
6 UK Financial Regulation after Big Bang	106
7 The New Financial Regulatory Framework in Canada	120
8 Universal Banking: Germany and Switzerland	138
9 The EEC’s New Regulatory Regime	156
10 Weighing the Policy Alternatives: Theory and Practice	175
11 A Risky Experiment	191
12 Postscript: The Bank of Credit and Commerce International	196
Index	205

List of Tables

---

2.1	US bank failures, 1921–1933	25
3.1	Riskiness of banking vs non-banking activities, 1980, 1982 and 1986	45
3.2	Ranks of non-bank activities according to risk and correlation with banking, 1980, 1982 and 1986	46
3.3	The risk effects of hypothetical non-bank acquisitions	47
8.1	Participations of the ten largest private banks in non-banking firms	141
8.2	Deutsche Bank's major equity stakes, end June 1989	141
9.1	Banks' permissible non-bank activities	159
12.1	Branch network of BCCI SA, Luxembourg, and BCCI (Overseas), Cayman Islands	202

List of Figures

---

4.1	Proposed financial structure	74
5.1	Japan's five policy alternatives	96
8.1	Credit Suisse holding company structure, end 1990	152
9.1	Second Banking Coordination Directive	157
12.1	BCCI corporate structure, 1990	200