

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments	v
1 Linguistic Minorities: West European and Canadian Perspectives Colin H. Williams	1
2 Geographical Aspects of Minority Language Situations in Italy Paul White	44
3 Defining the Gaeltacht: Dilemmas in Irish Language Planning Reg Hindley	66
4 The Geolinguistics of Breton Humphrey Lloyd Humphreys	96
5 Language-Retreat and Regeneration in the Present-Day Scottish Gàidhealtachd Kenneth MacKinnon	121
6 An Essay in Historical Geolinguistics: Gaelic Speaking in Urban Lowland Scotland in 1891 C. W. J. Withers	150
7 What Future for Scotland's Gaelic-speaking Communities? Clive James	173
8 Bicultural Conflict in the Context of the Core-Periphery Model Don Cartwright	219

9	The Spatial Organisation of Language in Canada, 1981 John de Vries	247
10	Gaelic in Nova Scotia John Edwards	269
11	Language Made Visible: Representation in Geolinguistics J. Ambrose and C. H. Williams	298
12	Conclusion: Sound Language Planning is Holistic in Nature Colin H. Williams	315
	Appendix: International Seminar on Geolinguistics	323
	Index	324