Contents

Health for All
Towards a broad perspective of health ................................. 7

Health is a moving target
Old and new diseases ....................................................... 22

Health in times of globalisation ........................................... 49

»We have been sitting on a secret«
Investment in health pays off ........................................... 74

Meeting the challenges
Making health central to human development ....................... 87

All for Health
Health is everybody's business ......................................... 114

Further reading ............................................................. 122