

Contents

Acknowledgments	xiii
List of contributors	xv
Prologue. Breaking the silence	1
Letter from a young doctor	5
Richard Selzer
Part I. On caring for patients	9
Section 1. Performing procedures	17
<hr/>
1. The responsibility of informing	18
Implications of physician experience	18
CASE: "First time"	18
Commentary:	18
William Nelson and Paul B. Hofmann
Commentary:	22
Robert L. Schwartz
Commentary:	24
Neal Cohen
Special vulnerabilities	25
CASE: "Who was really benefiting from the multiple exams?"	25
CASE: "Hey, you want to drain an abscess?"	26
CASE: "Medically correct, but an ethical catastrophe"	26
CASE: "I was not supposed to be there"	27
Commentary:	27
Amnon Goldworth
Commentary:	29
George J. Agich

Contents

2. Treating despite discomfort and self-doubt	33
CASE: "Aren't you done yet?"	33
CASE: "Have you ever done a lumbar puncture?"	33
CASE: "The emergency department at 4:00 a.m."	33
CASE: "Operating without experience"	33
Commentary:	34
Marli Huijjer
Commentary:	37
William Andereck
Commentary:	39
Gregory L. Larkin
3. Blaming the patient	43
CASE: "If you weren't so fat"	43
CASE: "The patient removed the traction"	43
Commentary:	44
Alan Steinbach
Commentary:	46
Francis Kane
4. Breaking the code: is a promise always a promise?	50
CASE: "How 'confidential' is confidential?"
Commentary:	50
Robyn Shapiro
Commentary:	52
Pablo Rodriguez del Pozo
5. The newly dead	56
CASE: "Patient or cadaver?"	56
Commentary:	56
Kenneth V. Iserson
Commentary:	60
Michael L. Gross
Commentary:	63
Jonathan Wyatt
6. Asking for help: who's listening?	66
CASE: "I fled from the room"	66
CASE: "I still don't know what I did wrong"	66
Commentary:	66
Barbara Supanich

Commentary:	71
David N. Weisstub
Commentary:	74
David Bennahum
Discussion questions	77
Section 2. Problems in truth-telling	79
<hr/>
7. Omissions: failing to come forward	80
CASE: "Omit the mistake"	80
CASE: "Was I acting under false pretenses?"	80
CASE: "White lies and omissions"	80
CASE: "I hated disappointing them"	80
CASE: "Sin of silence"	81
Commentary:	81
Lawrence J. Schneiderman
Commentary:	84
Ben Rich
8. Commissions: deliberate deception	88
CASE: "The chief resident 'lied' "	88
CASE: "A false report"	88
Commentary:	88
Lawrence J. Schneiderman
Commentary:	90
Jeffrey H. Burack
Commentary:	94
Ben Rich
Discussion questions	96
Section 3. Setting boundaries	97
<hr/>
9. From professional to personal	98
CASE: "Do you want to see me again?"	98
CASE: "I don't think I took advantage of her"	98
Commentary:	98
Richard Martinez
Commentary:	101
Rosamond Rhodes
10. Losing empathy	104
CASE: "Patients I don't like"	104
CASE: "Why should I invest in these patients?"	104

CASE: "A nurse said I should be more empathetic"	104
CASE: "Where were the third year students?"	104
CASE: "I hope this patient dies"	105
Commentary:	105
Richard Martinez
Commentary:	108
Marli Huijer
Commentary:	111
David Bennahum

11. The limits of compassion 113

CASE: "Does being a doctor include being a social worker?"	113
CASE: "I took a bus to his house on my day off"	113
CASE: "How do I suffer with her?"	113
CASE: "You don't help your patients by crying with them"	114
Commentary:	114
Richard Martinez
Commentary:	116
Guy Micco
Commentary:	119
Mary B. Mahowald
Discussion questions	122

Part II. On becoming a "team player": searching for esprit de corps and conflicts of socialization 123

Section 4. Abuse and mistreatment 135

12. Psychological abuse: subjected to humiliating and belittling behavior	136
CASE: "You idiot! What are you doing in medical school?"	136
CASE: "I would knock you to the floor"	136
CASE: "He treated me like a scut monkey"	136
CASE: "I knew better than to spoil his fun"	137

Commentary:	137
Ruth B. Purtilo
Commentary:	139
Gerrit Kimsma
13. Physical abuse: actual physical harm	142
CASE: "The commander"	142
Commentary:	142
David N. Weisstub
Commentary:	144
Emilio Mordini
14. Sexual abuse: sexist slurs and sexual advances	148
CASE: "Homework"	148
CASE: "What do you like best?"	148
CASE: "The histology lesson"	148
Commentary:	148
Domeena C. Renshaw
Commentary:	150
Evert van Leeuwen
Discussion questions	152
Section 5. Argot, jargon, and questionable humor: assuming the mantle at the patient's expense	153
<hr/>
15. Comedians: mordant humor and cynicism	154
CASE: "You killed one of our patients"	154
CASE: "Laughter and jokes at morning rounds"	154
Commentary:	155
Barbara Supanich
Commentary:	158
David N. Weisstub
16. What's in a name? Derogatory references	163
CASE: "Goombah"	163
CASE: "Shooter with a fever"	163
CASE: "The gorked gomer"	164
CASE: "FOB"	164

Commentary:	164
Jacquelyn Slomka
Commentary:	167
Harvey M. Weinstein
Discussion questions	169

Section 6. Making waves: questioning authority and the status quo 171

17. Personal identity	172
CASE: "Who am I?"	172
CASE: "Don't tell her you are a medical student"	172
CASE: "Premature description"	172
CASE: "The anonymous greeter"	172
CASE: "Without portfolio"	172
Commentary:	173
Griffin Trotter
Commentary:	176
Kate Christensen
18. Duties to treat?	178
CASE: "Unnecessary personal risk"	178
CASE: "He was telling me to take a risk he wasn't willing to take"	178
CASE: "I said I might be pregnant"	179
Commentary:	179
Gerrit Kimsma
Commentary:	180
Neal Cohen
19. Hierarchy and the dynamics of rank	183
Questioning authority	183
CASE: "Just a consult"	183
CASE: "Don't mess with the chain of command"	183
CASE: "Why use that medication?"	183
CASE: "Level with me"	184
CASE: "Why couldn't the patient be premedicated?"	184
CASE: "I followed orders even though I thought they were wrong"	184

CASE: "Help! My senior registrar has gone fishing"	185
Commentary: Søren Holm	186
Commentary: Griffin Trotter	190
Acting against authority	194
CASE: "When I speak you must follow"	194
CASE: "The patient is dead, leave him dead"	194
Commentary: John Harris	195
Commentary: Alan Steinbach	197
Striving to stay on top: competing with peers	203
CASE: "He would always arrange to have the easiest cases for himself"	203
CASE: "Just another cut-throat medical student"	203
CASE: "The new arrival was the ideal 'victim'"	204
Commentary: David N. Weisstub	204
Commentary: Jean-Christophe Mino	206
20. Conflicts of interest	208
CASE: "Should I accept drug company goodies?"	208
Commentary: James Weber	208
Commentary: Carson Strong	210
Discussion questions	214
Section 7. Perceiving misconduct and whistle-blowing: observing peers or superiors commit an act deemed unethical	215
<hr/>
21. Abusing alcohol or drugs	216
CASE: "Whistle-blowers take a lot of heat – particularly when they are a nobody"	216
CASE: "Missing drugs"	216

CASE: "I found the attending overdosed and unconscious"	216
Commentary:	217
Rosamond Rhodes
Commentary:	219
Neal Cohen
22. Mistreating patients: nasty, rude, or hostile behavior toward patients	223
CASE: "The patient had been verbally assaulted"	223
CASE: "Stop bothering us"	223
CASE: "The unknowing widow"	223
CASE: "The patient's wishes were ignored"	223
Commentary:	224
Ben Rich
Commentary:	228
Tod Chambers
23. Covering up	231
To acknowledge?
CASE: "The camouflaged patient"	231
CASE: "Didn't you write that order?"	231
CASE: "What should they have been told?"	231
CASE: "I knew the damage was iatrogenic"	232
CASE: "Boxed kidneys"	232
CASE: "By not telling am I an accomplice?"	232
Commentary:	233
Thomas A. Cavanaugh

Commentary: Marli Huijer	235
To intervene?	238
CASE: “Does anyone have a problem with this?”	238
CASE: “No one stopped him”	238
Commentary: Neal Cohen	238
Commentary: Bethany Spielman	241
Commentary: Akira Akabayashi	244
24. Misrepresenting research	248
CASE: “Was I a coward?”	248
CASE: “A faculty member listed his name as first author”	248
CASE: “Unethical author attribution”	248
Commentary: Akira Akabayashi	249
Commentary: Charles Weijer	251
Discussion questions	254
Epilogue: Using this book	255
Glossary	259
Index	261