A Final Caution: Association and Causation / 37

Independent Project 2.1 Further Investigations into the Causes of Divorce / 39

Comparative Analysis 2.1 Have the Causes of Divorce Changed over Time? / 41

Main Points / 43

SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter / 43

Chapter 3 Describing the Sample / 45

Bar Charts / 45

Exercise 3.1 A Bar Chart for RELIG / 45

Command Block 3.1 Producing a Bar Chart / 47

Exercise 3.2 More Bar Charts / 48

Research Report 3.1 Bar Charts: Marital Status, Place of Residence, and Social Class / 49

Types of Variables and Data Sets / 51

Variables / 51

Data Sets / 51

Exercise 3.3 Descriptive Statistics / 52

Command Block 3.2 / 52

Command Block 3.3 Producing Descriptive Statistics / 52

Reading Descriptive Statistics / 53

Printing and Saving Output from Descriptives / 53

Exercise 3.4 More Descriptive Statistics / 53

Research Report 3.2 Descriptive Statistics: Education, Number of Children, and Hours Spent Watching Television / 55

Line Charts / 57

Exercise 3.5 A Line Chart for AGE / 57

Command Block 3.4 Producing a Line Chart / 58

Exercise 3.6 Line Charts for Other Numerical Variables / 59

Research Report 3.3 Line Charts: Education, Number of Children, and Hours Spent Watching Television / 61

Independent Project 3.1 Summarizing Variables with Charts and Tables / 63

Independent Project 3.2 Summarizing Variables with Charts and Statistics / 65

Comparative Analysis 3.1 Have the Characteristics of the U.S. Population Changed over Time? / 67

Main Points / 69

SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter / 69

Chapter 4 Culture: What Do Americans Value? / 71

How Religious Are Americans? / 71

Exercise 4.1 Measuring Religiosity / 72

Command Block 4.1 / 72

Command Block 4.2 / 73

Exercise 4.2 Another Measure of Religiosity / 73

Research Report 4.1 Measuring Religiosity with RELITEN / 74

Analyzing Bivariate Tables /	75
The Format of Bivariate Tables /	75
Exploring Causal Relationships /	76
Determining Cause and Effect /	77
A Test of the Deprivation Theory of Religiosity /	77
Exercise 4.3 What Are the Correlates of Religiosity? /	77
Command Block 4.3 /	78
Exercise 4.4 Further Tests of the Deprivation Theory of Religiosity /	79
Command Block 4.4 /	79
Research Report 4.2 Testing the Deprivation Theory with RACE and CLASS /	80
Assessing the Significance and Strength of Bivariate Relationships /	81
Statistical Significance /	81
The Strength of the Association /	81
Summary: Analyzing Bivariate Relationships /	82
Exercise 4.5 Is There a Heaven? /	82
Command Block 4.5 Producing Crosstab Tables with Column Percentages, Chi Square, and Cramer's V /	83
Exercise 4.6 More Tests of the Deprivation Theory /	85
Another Caution: Association and Causation /	85
Research Report 4.3 Testing Deprivation Theory with POSTLIFE as a Measure of Religiosity /	87
Independent Project 4.1 A Final Test of the Deprivation Theory of Religiosity /	89
Independent Project 4.2 Other Causes of Religiosity /	91
Comparative Analysis 4.1 Have the Sources of Religiosity Changed over Time? /	93
Main Points /	95
SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter /	95

Chapter 5 A Controversy in Values: Attitudes about Abortion in 1994 / 97

Objectivity and Scientific Research /	97
Exercise 5.1 Do Americans Believe That Abortion Should Be a Legal Right? /	97
Command Block 5.1 /	98
Research Report 5.1 Approval of the Right to a Legal Abortion /	99
The Structure of Attitudes /	101
Exercise 5.2 Is There Consistency in Attitudes about Abortion as a Legal Right? /	101
Command Block 5.2 /	101
Research Report 5.2 Are Attitudes Consistent? /	103
Summarizing Attitudes about the Right to a Legal Abortion /	105
Exercise 5.3 Using the Compute Command to Create an Index /	105
Command Block 5.3 Computing an Abortion Attitude Index (ABINDEX) /	107
Saving the Data Set with the Computed Variable /	107
Missing Cases /	107
Checking the Computed Variable /	107
Command Block 5.4 /	108

What Are the Causes of Attitudes about the Right to a Legal Abortion? / 108

Exercise 5.4 Testing the Relationship between ABINDEX and SEX / 108

Command Block 5.5 / 108

Research Report 5.3 Summarizing ABINDEX / 109

Exercise 5.5 Testing Hypotheses about Support for Legal Abortion / 112

Main Points / 112

SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter / 112

Research Report 5.4 Testing Your Hypotheses / 113

Independent Project 5.1 What Causes Attitudes about Abortion? / 115

Comparative Analysis 5.1 Have Attitudes about Abortion Changed over
Time? / 117

Comparative Analysis 5.2 Have the Causes of Attitudes about Abortion
Changed over Time? / 119

Chapter 6 Socialization: What Kinds of Children Do Americans Want? / 121

What Do Americans Want in Children? / 121

Exercise 6.1 Why Do Socialization Values Vary? / 122

Command Block 6.1 / 123

Exercise 6.2 A Further Test of the Hypothesis: Social Class Is a Cause of Socialization Ideals / 124

Research Report 6.1 Is There a Relationship Between Social Class and
Socialization Ideals? / 125

Exercise 6.3 What Other Factors Might Affect the Qualities People Desire in Children? / 127

Research Report 6.2 Other Causes of Opinions about the Qualities Children
Should Possess / 128

Exercise 6.4 To Spank or Not to Spank? / 129

Research Report 6.3 Is Support for Spanking Related to Desired Qualities in Children? / 130

Exercise 6.5 Other Causes of Support for SPANKING / 131

Research Report 6.4 Who Supports Spanking? / 132

The Direction of Relationships / 133

Exercise 6.6 Support for Spanking and Social Class: Interpreting Gamma / 134

Command Block 6.2 Producing Crosstab Tables with Column Percentages,
Chi Square, and Gamma / 134

Exercise 6.7 An Additional Test for a Relationship Between Social Class and SPANKING / 136

Main Points / 136

SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter / 136

Research Report 6.5 Social Class and Spanking / 137

Independent Project 6.1 Is Spanking "Old-Fashioned"? / 139

Independent Project 6.2 Additional Causes of Support for Spanking / 141

Chapter 7 Crime, Fear, and Punishment / 143

Defining Crime / 143

Measuring Crime / 143

Exercise 7.1 Victimization / 144

Choosing a Measure of Association / 144

Command Block 7.1 Producing Crosstab Tables for BURGLR / 145

Research Report 7.1 Who Is Victimized by Burglary? / 147

Multivariate Analysis: What Happens When Variables Are Combined? / 151

Command Block 7.2 Selecting RACE as a Control Variable / 152

Exercise 7.2 A Multivariate Analysis of BURGLR / 153

Research Report 7.2 Multivariate Analysis of BURGLR / 155

Who's Afraid? / 157

Exercise 7.3 The Correlates of Fear / 159

Research Report 7.3 Who's Afraid? / 161

Exercise 7.4 A Multivariate Analysis of FEAR / 163

Exercise 7.5 An Additional Multivariate Analysis of FEAR / 163

Research Report 7.4 Multivariate Analysis of FEAR / 165

Independent Project 7.1 Other Causes of Victimization / 167

Independent Project 7.2 The Death Penalty / 169

Independent Project 7.3 A Multivariate Analysis of Support for the Death Penalty / 171

Comparative Analysis 7.1 Has Support for Capital Punishment Changed over Time? / 173

Main Points / 175

SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter / 175

Chapter 8 Inequality and Social Class in the United States / 177

The Dimensions of Inequality / 177

Exercise 8.1 Exploring Inequality / 178

Command Block 8.1 Loading GSS94COR.SAV / 178

Scatterplots / 179

Producing Scatterplots / 179

Command Block 8.2 Producing a Scatterplot / 180

Adding the Regression Line / 181

Command Block 8.3 Adding the Regression Line to a Scatterplot / 182

Reading Scatterplots / 183

A Measure of Association: Pearson's r / 183

Producing and Interpreting Pearson's r / 184

Command Block 8.4 Producing Pearson's r / 184

Exercise 8.2 The Correlates of Inequality / 185

Command Block 8.5 Producing Pearson's r for Three Variables / 186

Research Report 8.1 Testing Two Views of Social Mobility / 187

Exercise 8.3 The Consequences of Class / 189

Main Points / 189

SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter / 189

Research Report 8.2 What Variables Are Correlated with Social Class? / 191

Exercise 8.4 Can Money Buy Happiness? / 193

- Command Block 8.6 Loading GSS94TAB.SAV / 193
- Command Block 8.7 Producing a Crosstab Table for HAPPY and CLASS / 193
- Research Report 8.3 Is Happiness Affected by Social Class? / 195
- Independent Project 8.1 What Determines Success: Your Qualifications or Your Family? / 197
- Independent Project 8.2: Can Money Buy Happiness? A Further Test / 199
- Comparative Analysis 8.1 Have the Causes of Social Mobility Changed over Time? / 201
- Comparative Analysis 8.2 Could Money Buy Happiness in 1972? / 203

Chapter 9 Inequality and Gender / 205

- Sexism in the United States / 205
 - Exercise 9.1 Charting the Inequalities of Gender / 205
 - Command Block 9.1 Producing a Multiple Line Chart for EDUC and SEX / 207
- Editing and Printing Charts / 208
 - Command Block 9.2 Changing the Style of a Line in a Chart / 208
 - Research Report 9.1 Gender Inequality: Education, Prestige, and Income / 209
 - Exercise 9.2 Testing the Inequalities of Gender for Statistical Significance / 211
 - Command Block 9.3 Running T Test for EDUC, PRESTG80, and RINCOME91 by SEX / 212
- Reading the Output from T Test / 213
 - Research Report 9.2 T Test for Gender Inequality / 215
 - Exercise 9.3 The Correlates of Sexism / 217
 - Research Report 9.3 What Are the Causes of Sexism? / 219
 - Exercise 9.4 Multivariate Analysis of Sexism / 223
 - Command Block 9.4 Producing Multivariate Tables Controlling for SEX / 224
 - Research Report 9.4 Multivariate Analysis of Sexism / 225
- Our Analysis of Gender Inequality for Research Reports 9.1 and 9.2 / 227
- Main Points / 227
- SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter / 227
 - Independent Project 9.1 The Causes of Sexism / 229
 - Independent Project 9.2 Multivariate Analysis of Sexism / 231
 - Comparative Analysis 9.1 Has Gender Inequality Changed over Time? / 233
 - Comparative Analysis 9.2 Testing for the Significance of the Difference in Gender Inequality in 1972 / 235
 - Comparative Analysis 9.3 Sexism in 1972 / 237

Chapter 10 Inequality and Race / 239

- The Legacy of Racial Inequality / 239
 - Exercise 10.1 Charting the Inequalities of Race / 239
 - Command Block 10.1 Producing a Multiple Line Chart for EDUC and RACE / 240
- Printing and Editing Charts / 240

Research Report 10.1 Multiple Line Chart for EDUC and RACE /	243
Exercise 10.2 Testing Racial Inequalities for Statistical Significance /	245
Command Block 10.2 Running T Test for EDUC, PRESTG80, and RINCOME91 by RACE /	245
Reading the Output from T Test /	246
Research Report 10.2 T Test for EDUC, PRESTG80, and RINCOME91 /	247
Exercise 10.3 The Extent and Causes of Racial Prejudice in the United States /	249
Selecting Respondents /	249
Command Block 10.3 Selecting White Respondents Only /	250
Measuring Prejudice /	251
What Causes Prejudice? /	251
Research Report 10.3 Measuring Racial Prejudice and Exploring Its Causes /	253
Exercise 10.4 Another Look at Prejudice in the United States: Modern Racism /	255
Research Report 10.4 Testing Traditional and Modern Racism /	257
Exercise 10.5 A Multivariate Analysis of Prejudice and Social Class /	261
Main Points /	261
SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter /	262
Research Report 10.5 Analyzing Social Class and Prejudice /	263
Independent Project 10.1 Are Sexism and Prejudice Related? /	265
Independent Project 10.2 Other Causes of Prejudice /	269
Independent Project 10.3 Multivariate Analysis of Prejudice /	271
Comparative Analysis 10.1 Has Racial Inequality Changed over Time? /	273
Comparative Analysis 10.2 Testing for the Significance of the Difference in Racial Inequality in 1972 /	275
Comparative Analysis 10.3 Prejudice in 1972 /	277

Chapter 11 The Family Institution: Forms and Functions / 279

The Basic Building Block of Society /	279
Exercise 11.1 Forms of the Family /	279
Research Report 11.1 Family Forms in the United States /	281
Exercise 11.2 The Correlates of Types of Living Arrangements /	283
Research Report 11.2 Finding the Correlates of FAMTYPE /	285
Exercise 11.3 Type of Family and Happiness /	287
Research Report 11.3 Are Family Type and Happiness Related? /	289
Exercise 11.4 Multivariate Analysis of Happiness and Living Arrangement /	291
HAPPY and FAMTYPE, Controlling for Sex /	291
Additional Multivariate Analysis of HAPPY and FAMTYPE /	292
Command Block 11.1 Producing Multivariate Tables /	292
Research Report 11.4 Multivariate Analysis of HAPPY and FAMTYPE /	293
Exercise 11.5 Attitudes about Sex /	295
Research Report 11.5 Analyzing Attitudes about Premarital Sex /	296
Exercise 11.6 Sexual Behavior /	299
Analyzing SEXFREQ and AGE /	299
Command Block 11.2 Producing a Scatterplot for SEXFREQ and AGE /	299

Command Block 11.3 Running a Bivariate Correlation for SEXFREQ and AGE / 300

Further Analysis of SEXFREQ / 301

Main Points / 302

SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter / 302

Research Report 11.6 Exploring Possible Causes for SEXFREQ and PARTNRS5 / 303

Independent Project 11.1 What Are the Causes of FAMTYPE? / 305

Independent Project 11.2 Who Approves of Premarital Sex? / 307

Independent Project 11.3 Multivariate Analysis of Attitudes about Premarital Sex / 309

Independent Project 11.4 Charting Differences in Sexual Activity by Gender / 311

Comparative Analysis 11.1 Have Attitudes about Premarital Sex Changed Since 1972? / 313

Chapter 12 The Political Institution in the United States: Voter Turnout, Presidential Choice, and the Gender Gap / 315

Who Votes? / 315

Exercise 12.1 Estimating Population Characteristics / 315

Exercise 12.2 The Correlates of Voter Turnout in the United States / 317

Research Report 12.1 Analyzing Voter Turnout / 318

Previous Research on Voter Turnout / 321

Exercise 12.3 Multivariate Analysis of Voter Turnout / 321

Research Report 12.2 Multivariate Analysis of Voter Turnout / 323

Exercise 12.4 Presidential Preference in 1992: Who Voted for Whom? / 325

Research Report 12.3 Analyzing Presidential Choices / 327

Exercise 12.5 Multivariate Analysis of the 1992 Presidential Vote / 329

Research Report 12.4 Multivariate Analysis of Presidential Choice / 331

Exercise 12.6 The Gender Gap / 333

Research Report 12.5 Analyzing the Effect of Gender on the Vote / 335

Independent Project 12.1 What Other Factors Affect Voter Turnout? / 337

Independent Project 12.2 Multivariate Analysis of Voter Turnout / 339

Independent Project 12.3 What Other Factors Affect the Vote for the President? / 341

Independent Project 12.4 Does Ideology Matter? / 343

Independent Project 12.5 Was Religion a Factor in the 1992 Presidential Election? / 345

Comparative Analysis 12.1 Voter Turnout in 1968 / 347

Comparative Analysis 12.2 The Correlates of Presidential Preference / 349

Main Points / 351

SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter / 351

Appendix A Variable Names, Item Wordings, and Codes for All Data Sets / 353

Appendix B SPSS Commands Used in This Book / 367

Answers to Selected Exercises / 375

Bibliography / 383

Index/Glossary / 385

Chapter 1 Getting Started: Social Research, Data Sets, and Frequency Distributions / 1

Data Sets / 1

Exercise 1.1 An Introduction to SPSS for Windows, Student Version / 3

The !Output! Window / 6

The Newdata Window / 7

Exercise 1.2 Loading a Data File / 8

Command Block 1.1 Opening a Data File / 9

Command Block 1.2 Finding Information on Variables / 11

Command Block 1.3 Ending Your SPSS Session / 12

Frequency Distributions / 13

Exercise 1.3 Frequency Distributions / 13

Command Block 1.4 Constructing Frequency Distributions / 14

Reading Frequency Distributions / 15

Saving Frequency Distributions / 16

Command Block 1.5 Saving Your Output / 16

Printing Frequency Distributions / 17

Command Block 1.6 Printing Your Output / 17

Exercise 1.4 Producing Frequency Distributions for the 1994 GSS / 17

Command Block 1.7 / 17

Research Report 1.1 Summarizing Variables, Part A / 19

Research Report 1.2 Summarizing Variables, Part B / 21

Main Points / 23

SPSS Commands Introduced in This Chapter / 23

Chapter 2 Theory and Research: The Scientific Method / 25

Theory and Research / 25

Causation / 25

Measuring Concepts / 26

Exercise 2.1 Finding Measures / 26

Command Block 2.1 / 27

Command Block 2.2 / 27

Research Report 2.1 Measuring Divorce and Religiosity / 29

Exercise 2.2 Testing the Theory / 31

Command Block 2.3 Producing Crosstab Tables with Column Percentages / 33

Exercise 2.3 Other Causes of Divorce / 34

Research Report 2.2 Comparing Your Hypothesis and Results / 35
