Contents

Contributors vii

1. A Healthier Future? An Overview 1
Eilish Mc Auliffe and Laraine Joyce

PART ONE: THE HEALTH STATUS OF THE IRISH POPULATION

2. Health Status 17
Patrick Doorley

PART TWO: DIRECTION AND CONTROL

3. Irish Healthcare Policy: Legislative Strategy or Administrative Control? 43
David McKevitt

4. Governance – Where the Dream Starts and the Buck Stops 64
Sean Conroy

PART THREE: FUNDING

5. Healthcare – the Context 79
Miriam Hederman O'Brien

6. Health Funding and Expenditure in Ireland 92
Fergal Lynch

7. Resource Management in the Irish and UK Health Systems: Reconciling the Irreconcilable? 108
Marie Brady and Peter West

PART FOUR: CHANGING MANAGEMENT PRACTICE

8. Balancing Risk-taking and Accountability in Public-Sector Management 123
Denis Doherty

9. Managed Care and Healthcare in Ireland 140
Maureen P. Lynott

10. Quality in the Irish Healthcare System 152
Austin L. Leahy

PART FIVE: MANAGING IN A MULTI-AGENCY ENVIRONMENT

11. The Role of the Public Voluntary Hospital Sector in Shaping the Institutional Context of Health Policy in Ireland 169
Patricia Brown

12. Changing Relationships and the Voluntary and Statutory Sectors 181
Tim O'Sullivan

13. Managing Social Services 198
David Kenefick

PART SIX: CLINICIANS, PROFESSIONALS AND THE MANAGEMENT PROCESS

14. Doctors and Management Development 219
Laraine Joyce

15. Leadership: Making the Best Use of the Nursing Resource 237
Geraldine McCarthy

PART SEVEN: THE RECIPIENTS OF HEALTHCARE

16. Community Participation in Primary Healthcare 257
John Kevany

17. Promoting Health: Thinking Through Context 270
Malcolm MacLachlan

18. Towards Patient-Centred Care: Consumer Involvement in Healthcare 286
Eilish Mc Auliffe

References and Further Reading 306